Lausche Calls Ohio Legislature

Seeks To Outlaw Utility Strikes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republicans have been quick to criticize Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche for calling a special session of the Legislature for Nov. 9.

Lausche says he will ask the Legislature to outlaw utility strikes and require arbitration of grievances. He called the session after a conference Wednesday aimed at ending the 110-day strike against Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. and providing emergency service to the Portsmouth area.

The governor's opponent in his race for the U. S. Senate, Sen. George H. Bender, said Lausche's action in calling the session was a "direct confession of failure."

"Gov. Lausche has given this strike only the same kind of half-hearted, lackadaisical treatment which he has brought to other problems affecting our state," Bender declared.

Special Session Rapped

State Rep. Roger Cloud (R-Logan), speaker of the Ohio House, said he could not "see the wisdom of a special session." He said the governor has authority to maintain law and order and could move the Ohio National Guard to the Portsmouth area "without invitation from anyone."

Cloud said he had not talked to the governor and did not know what legislation Lausche had in mind. He added, however, that a Wisconsin law banning strikes against public utilities was declared unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court in 1951.

The Portsmouth Voluntary Citizens Committee for Law Enforcement asked the governor for the special session when it became apparent the company would not provide emergency service.

The company says it will resume service when law and order is an established fact in the Portsmouth area. That area has been without telephone service three times since the strike began last July 15. The latest shutdown began Oct. 16 after the company's exchanges there were stoned.

Paul E. Flohr, co-chairman of the citizens committee, said the group always thought there could be a compromise on the strike

Ohio Commission Backs Defendant

Dismissed Health Board Clerk Back On The Job

Miss Eleanor Szkola, clerk in the Salem city board of health office for 15 years, apparently has won back the job from which she was dismissed last July 1.

In fact, Miss Szkola reported for work this morning at the board of health office in City Hall and, although she was told "there is nothing for you to do," she remained at the office.

Carl W. Smith, chairman of the Ohio Civil Service Commission, yesterday wrote the following opinion to Miss Szkola in her case:

"All of the correspondence in your case has been gone over very carefully, and it is the opinion of the State Commission that the Municipal Civil Service Commission of Salem is entirely right in stating that you are a member of the classified service of the city, and that the tenure of your office is not to be determined by the whim of the City Board of Health or of the City Commissioner of Health.

"It is our opinion that you were illegally removed from your office, that you should be reinstated at once and given the back pay from the date of your removal.

"If your services as an employe of the Department of Health were not satisfactory, charges should have been preferred against you and a hearing upon those charges conducted by the Municipal Civil Service Commission."

Copies of Mr. Smith's opinion were sent to Mayor Dean B. Cranmer, presiding officer of the board of health, and Dr. R. T. Holzbach, city health commissioner.

When Miss Szkola was discharged from her job last July 1 she was told she did not contribute to the efficiency of the office although Mayor Cranmer and Dr. Holzbach expressed appreciation for her long service.

Dr. Holzbach said today the action was based upon the legal advice of Solicitor James Primm, Jr. and State Examiner Robert L. Lippincott.

Never Took Civil Service Test

Miss Szkola never took a civil service examination for her job, records indicate, but the clerk claims that she is entitled to civil service protection because the state in 1942 automatically put classified city workers under civil service because of prior service.

Miss Elaine Hundertmarck has occupied the clerk job in the Board of Health office since Sept. 10.

Between July 1 and Sept. 10 the clerk duties were performed by Miss Ann Holzbach, but Roy W. Harris, secretary of the Municipal Civil Service Commission, refused to sign the vouchers for her pay.

The job pays $182 a month.

Collects Bottles To Defray Costs Of Long Journey

Collecting pop bottles is not a hobby for John William La Barte, 35, of Modesto, Calif., it is a means of livelihood. La Barte collects pop bottles to pay for coffee and cigarettes needed to keep him going on a cross-country bicycling trip.

La Barte, who stopped in Salem today after a short jaunt from Greenville, Pa., left Modesto last June for Titusville, Pa., to visit his mother, Mrs. C. Josephine Hunt. It took him three months to complete the trip. He said he lived on corn starch and pudding in the Rocky Mountains for four weeks. He helped defray expenses by working on a Kansas construction job for two weeks.

La Barte pedals a bike loaded with 200 pounds of equipment including a ball peen hammer for driving tent pegs, a tail light, a portable radio, and a steel helmet which he uses to wash in.

He averages 70 miles a day and has made up to 150 miles on a good day.

Less than a month after arriving in Titusville, where he was born, La Barte contracted an old asthmatic condition which forced him to head back to California and warmer weather. He said he plans to sleep in police stations rather than outdoors until he gets further south.

La Barte intends to settle in California and work at either professional gardening, demolition or fire fighting.

Looks To U. N. For Solution To Problem

President Chides Britain, France, Israel For Attack

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, having ruled out use of U. S. armed forces in the present Middle East fighting, looked to the United Nations today to find a way of solving "this tormenting problem."

"In the past," the President said in a radio-TV broadcast to the nation Wednesday night, "the United Nations has proved able to find a way to end bloodshed. We believe it can and will do so again."

He said the United States would "do all in its power to localize the fighting and to end the conflict."

He did not suggest specific steps.

He said the U. N. General Assembly should be able to bring "The opinion of the world" to bear on the situation created by Israel's attack on Egypt and British-French intervention.

Chides Britain, France

He chided Britain, France and Israel but added that all had been provoked by Egyptian actions.

He said he has no plan to call a special session of Congress. But promised to maintain close contact with congressional leaders.

A few hours before Eisenhower spoke, the State Department banned travel by U. S. citizens into Egypt, Israel, Jordan and Syria except where a trip is determined to be in this country's "best interests."

The department announced also that 1,888 Americans had been evacuated from the same four countries by late Wednesday afternoon, and that by its count 4,878 Americans remained. It said the Air Force and units of the 6th Fleet are aiding in the evacuation.

The Maritime Administration, meanwhile, advised all U. S. merchant ships to avoid the Suez Canal area until the Middle East situation is clarified.

"No U.S. Involvement"

Eisenhower described the tangled situation in his speech, and then said: "In the circumstances I have described, there will be no United States involvement in these present hostilities."

Eisenhower declared that the Israeli, British and French decisions to attack Egypt were decisions "taken in error."

Yet to say that the U. S. government considers the British, and Israeli actions wrong, Eisenhower declared, "is in no way to minimize our friendship with these nations — nor our determination to maintain those friendships."

Earlier in his speech, Eisenhower said that "in Eastern Europe there is the dawning of a new day."

"If the Soviet Union faithfully acts upon its announced intention," he said, "the world will witness the greatest forward stride toward justice, trust and understanding among nations in our generation."

He reaffirmed U. S. readiness to assist the new governments of Hungary and Poland with economic help.

U. N. Assembly To Meet Today

Fighting Brings Call For Emergency Action

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly was called into emergency session today to decide what to do about military attacks by Britain, France and Israel on Egypt.

The U. N. Security Council voted 7-2 Wednesday night to summon the Assembly after Britain and France launched air and naval operations against Egypt with the announced aim of occupying the Suez Canal zone and halting the Israeli-Egyptian fighting.

Less than 24 hours earlier Britain and France had vetoed U. S. and Soviet resolutions in the council for a cease-fire in Egypt and withdrawal of Israeli troops.

Under the resolution introduced by Yugoslavia, the special session of the 76-nation Assembly will consider recommendations to U. N. members for collective measures, including "the use of armed force when necessary."

Less Drastic Steps

Less drastic steps could include a condemnation of Britain, France and Israel, a cease-fire call, or a request that U. N. members punish the three with diplomatic and economic measures.

Britain and France voted against the resolution to convene the Assembly, contending it was illegal. Australia and Belgium abstained. The United States and the Soviet Union were among those casting favorable votes, further emphasizing the grave split in the Western alliance.

Rudecindo Ortega, chief of Chile's delegation who was slated to preside over the special session, said in a statement to the press that the assembly's first step will be to give "ample moral support" to the U. S. cease-fire resolution which Britain and France vetoed in the Security Council.

First Emergency Session

The emergency session is the first ever called under the Assembly's so-called "uniting for peace" resolution of Nov. 3, 1950. The United States got that resolution adopted in the Korean War days to enable the U. N. to act against aggression despite the Soviet veto in the Security Council.

The council call for the session said "a grave situation has been

The association, composed of members of the Chamber of Commerce, became a separate division of the C. of C. as a result of action taken by the latter organization's board of directors Monday. The action gave the retail merchants a self-governing policy on all matters dealing with retailing and merchandising.

Other officers elected by the association are: vice president, Elliott Hansell; and members of the board, Alroy S. Bloomberg, Thomas R. Howett, of the Arbaugh Furniture Co., Walter B. Null II, of R. S. McCulloch Co., Inc.; Walter L. Strain, and Mrs. Louise C. Bunn.

Store hours were set up for the Christmas season as follows: Stores will be open each Wednesday afternoon until 5 between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Several of the stores will remain closed Wednesday, Jan. 2, but regular scheduled hours of all stores will begin Thursday, Jan. 3.

125 At Democratic Get-Together Here

About 125 persons attended the Salem Democratic Committee meeting Wednesday evening at the Metzger Hotel. County and state candidates were present at this final meeting in Salem prior to the general election Tuesday.

William Steffel, city chairman, opened the meeting, after which Don Gosney, county chairman, presided. He introduced the candidates who spoke briefly.

In the absence of Wayne L. Hays, congressman of the 18th district, John Taylor, nominee for lieutenant governor of Ohio, was guest speaker.

The candidates wives served refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

2 Area Men Fined On Hunting Charge

Melvin Richards, 46, of RD 1, Canfield, and Charles Baird, 39, of Greenford were arrested at 11 p.m. Wednesday in Green Township by Mack Duckworth of Alliance, special game protector, and Earl Ressler, Mahoning County game protector, for hunting raccoon out of season.

The two men were fined $125 and cost by Justice of the Peace Harry A. Walker of Canfield Twp. after they pleaded guilty to the charge. The hunting licenses of the two were suspended until Sept. 1, 1957.

According to Ressler, Richards and Baird shook the raccoon out of a tree and then allowed their dogs to kill the animal.

The Ohio raccoon season opens Thursday, Nov. 15, at 6 p.m.

Cairo Reports Warship Sank In Suez Canal

Traffic Blocked, Oil To Europe Cut Off; Air Attacks Heavy

LONDON (AP) — British and French planes carried on nonstop attacks on Egyptian airfields today and Cairo announced attacking aircraft sank an Egyptian warship in the Suez Canal—blocking traffic and cutting off oil shipping to Europe.

Cairo said British and French warplanes raided Egyptian troops at crossing points along the canal and in the operation sank the Egyptian warship Akka in Timsah Lake just south of Ismailia, midway point of the canal.

The Egyptian statement added: "Britain and France stopped navigation in the canal by their action at a time when they shook the world claiming they were protecting navigation in the canal.

"Air raids continued throughout the day on our air fields at Alexandria, Cairo and in the Suez Canal zone."

Air raid sirens whined five times in Cairo up to early afternoon today.

To Protect Waterway

Britain and France launched military operations against President Nasser's regime Wednesday night with the declared purpose of protecting the waterway from fighting swirling between Egyptian and Israeli forces in the Sinai Desert.

The Egyptians gave out no official information today on the fighting with Israeli troops. But the Israelis claimed Egyptian troops were on retreat.

Even before Egypt announced blocking of the canal, shipping was reported turning back from its approaches because of danger from military operations.

Egypt asked other Arab states to block another source for Middle East oil — the pipelines from the main production centers to Mediterranean ports.

Egypt broke off diplomatic relations with Britain and France. Jordan broke relations with France.

5 Air Alarms

Cairo dispatches said five air raid alarms sounded in Cairo up to early afternoon, and Egyptian military headquarters claimed six British planes downed.

Troops of the two western nations had not shown up in the area of operations, but their landing on Egyptian soil was expected.

British planes with cannon and rocket fire were reported in official announcements here and at Cyprus, their base, to be striking hard at five Egyptian airfields in the Suez zone and Nile delta in an effort to destroy Nasser's So-

Nasser Promises Fight From Village to Village

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — In a fighting speech to his people, President Nasser of Egypt promised today "we will fight from village to village, from place to place," until Egypt wins victory.

In a 20-minute broadcast heard in Beirut, Nasser pledged he would fight "to the last drop of my blood" to secure Egyptian independence.

"Every one of you is a soldier," he declared. "Arms have been distributed to every one able to carry them. We shall fight hard. We shall never give up. We shall fight from village to village, from place to place. We shall be victorious."

In making the appointment, Atty. Bryce Kendall, Columbiana County co-chairman, lauded Bricker's performance of his duties last year. Kendall said the 1957 drive will last inclusively from Jan. 1 to Jan. 30, 1957.

During 1956, the county took in a total of $8,054.88 for the March of Dimes. Funds are earmarked for Columbiana County's fight against polio and national research.

Ike To Back Mid-East Stand In Philadelphia TV Address

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, reportedly planning new jabs at Adlai E. Stevenson, returns to the campaign platform tonight in Philadelphia for further discussion of the Middle East crisis.

In a television-radio address to be carried coast to coast by NBC the President may have something to say about a contention by Stevenson, his Democratic opponent, that "the world is on the brink of war again" because, Stevenson said, Eisenhower's "foreign policies in the Middle East have been disastrous."

Time of the address is 9:30 p.m. EST.

Stevenson made his statement in a campaign speech in Pittsburg Wednesday night, and contended again, as he had earlier in New York, that the Eisenhower administration "bears heavy responsibility" for the situation.

In a nationwide TV-radio address from Washington Wednesday night, a talk the White House termed "nonpolitical," Eisenhower said the United States will avoid "involvement" in the present Middle East fighting.

Eisenhower's press secretary James C. Hagerty said that at the time Eisenhower went on the air he had not seen a telegram from Stevenson expressing hope "that you will not commit us to any precipitate military action."

The Middle East crisis caused Eisenhower to cancel a campaign trip he had scheduled for Wednesday into Texas, Oklahoma and Tennessee.

Mrs. John Taylor In Thick Of Campaign To Elect Husband

By LOIS WHITE

Any candidate for a political office is well aware of the pressing requirements of pre-election campaigning, and so will eagerly attend rallies, teas, parties, meetings, and informal social gatherings in the attempt to capture votes.

But what about the wives of these candidates? Do they, as in yesteryear, remain quietly in the background only emerging now and then to depict the candidate's happy family life? The answer is no.

Instead, the wives of today's candidates do everything they can to put their husband's ideas and virtues before the all-important public.

Typical is Mrs. John Taylor of Salem who since February when her husband announced his candidacy for lieutenant governor of Ohio has seldom had a quiet moment to herself.

Lena Taylor estimates that in the course of hundreds of trips she has taken she has shaken the hands of some 25,000 women. In Cleveland alone one afternoon she personally greeted 7,000 women. However, Mrs. Taylor thoroughly enjoys the "politicking," although she ruefully remarks that sometimes her feet fare badly after standing for hours.

Momentoes of her trips are two pairs of gloves completely worn through during her past months of visitations to Cincinnati, Cleveland, Youngstown, Warren, Upper Sandusky, New Philadelphia, and Columbus, to name a few.

Teas, both formal and informal are the key vote-getters for the women, and so Mrs. Taylor's engagement calendar — which she scans each evening in preparation for the next day — is filled with such affairs.

Clothes often become a problem, especially when she requires two complete changes of clothes in an afternoon. For example, in the early part of the day she may attend an informal affair, while later she may have to appear at a formal reception. And so, Mrs. Taylor always prepares for such a contingency by packing an extra costume. Many times, says she, she has had less than five minutes to make a change for the next appearance.

And she keeps a bag packed with necessary articles at all times in her bedroom in case a sudden weekend or overnight trip comes up.

Mrs. Taylor does her housework when she can; she hasn't been home a full week since her husband began his campaign. The couple seldom spend a quiet evening at home since either one or the other usually is busy.

Oftentimes Mrs. Taylor will be in one section of the state appearing in her husband's behalf, while Taylor is in another section. When she "substitutes" at rallies and the like for her husband she keeps her speeches brief.

The hectic campaigning is a "wonderful experience" to Mrs. Taylor, however, who says she "wouldn't miss it for the world." All told, she figures the family car has transported her about 26,000 miles during this campaign.

When she is at home Mrs. Taylor keeps active answering letters and sending out campaign literature for her husband. Her background for these chores is a good one since for years she has assisted her husband as secretary in his business, John Taylor, Printer, Inc.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Taylor was graduated from Salem High School, and was a clerk in the Hemmeter - Martenn Department Store in Salem. The couple have a son, John Jr., who lives in New York.

Newsmen Go Out On Strike In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Pickets from the American Newspaper Guild marched today outside the Cleveland Press building in the first strike against a newspaper here since 1946.

It was the first strike ever staged by the guild's 23-year-old Cleveland Local No. 1.

The pickets took their stations at midnight when an old contract ran out with negotiators unable to agree on a new one to replace it.

Wages were the main issue. The existing newsman minimum here is $12,250 after five years ecperience.

Guild units at the Press and at the city's other two big daily newspapers—the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Cleveland News—have pared higher original demands to a boost of from $9 to $12.50 in a two-year contract.

Management of the Press offered an increase from $6 to $10.50 early today in an "after-the-deadline" meeting with guild negotiators and a federal conciliator. But the guild turned it down and the meeting broke up.

Representatives of the Forest City Publishing Co., publisher of the News and Plain Dealer, also attended that meeting.

As the bargainers adjourned, a guild spokesman said that if the Press would meet its terms, the union would do everything possible to put out the Press today.

The guild contracts with the News and Plain Dealer also expired at midnight. But the guildsmen at those newspapers have not taken a strike vote.

The guild represents both editorial and commercial employes at the Press. Commercial employes at the News and Plain Dealer are not organized.

Approximately a dozen pickets appeared first at the Press. Within an hour the number had swelled to 25. The guild said there would be mass picketing at the building later in the morning.

Members of the Cleveland Typographical Union, scheduled to start work at 12:15 a.m., honored the picket line and did not report for work.

Don't Act Your Age

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Famous folks often are asked what keeps them so young.

The secret of many seems to be —they don't always act their age.

Nothing really makes you feel and look older than your years than letting your calendar age put you in a mental straitjacket.

"When are you ever going to grow up?" is a rebuke often heard from the killjoys of this world.

If by growing up they mean when are you going to put away all childish pleasures and be deadly serious about everything, your answer should be a fervent, "Never, I hope!"

The trouble with people who always insist on being deadly serious is—they often become seriously dead before their time.

No one could say that statesman Winston Churchill, financier Bernard Baruch, architect Frank Lloyd Wright or Casey Stengel, the leading exponent of world championship baseball, haven't done well in their respective fields. But they are all young old men. Why? Because each has kept alive in him a small boy's sense of fun.

The late Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, who quipped, "Oh, to be 70 again!" had the same quality. So did gentle Albert Einstein, father of the atom age.

The adult who feels he is wasting time unless he is always thinking high thoughts or doing important deeds is guiltier of a greater waste. He commits a form of suicide. He murders the spirit of childhood in him, the child he once was and must somehow keep alive or else he'll turn forever old.

It works as simply as a formula —let the delight of childhood die within you, and you begin to wither, too.

And what does delight of childhood consist of? It consists of the feeling of joy you get in doing things, not because they are important, but because they are fun.

Celebrities, when they aren't busy being celebrities, often relax in pursuits that seem childish to the worldy dull. The smarter the celebrity the more likely he is to have this ability to forget his own importance now and then relive the pleasure of acting like a kid.

The moral is: If you want to feel like a kid, forget your dignity now and then and act like one!

Trick Gets Them Treat

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Two Halloween-minded gunman, wearing false black beards and clown makeup, held up a supermarket Wednesday night and escaped with an undertermined amount of cash, police reported.

Cook sliced mushrooms and wide strips of green pepper together in a little butter or margarin and top veal chops with the mixture.

Five medium-sized beets (about one pound) will make servings for four.

Vote 'Yes' For School Levy

All citizens interested in good schools will vote for the renewal of the Salem school district's four and one-half-mill operating levy next Tuesday.

The levy, which actually is for the years 1957 through 1961, will provide $175,000 annually, based on real estate tax collections, for the maintenance of Salem's fine school system.

Salem schools are being expanded building-wise and it requires more and more funds to maintain them. There are teachers' salaries to pay, janitors' wages to meet, text books and other supplies to purchase and normal heating and lighting expenses to pay from month to month.

It is not a new tax. It is a renewal of a levy first approved in 1941.

Vote "Yes" for the school proposition when you get your special questions and issues ballot next Tuesday.

Squeeze Play

What appears to be chaos in the Middle East did not become chaotic by chance.

It was planned that way.

The trick is to find out what the plan calls for and sidetrack the plot before it blooms into full-scale war, perhaps by accident.

That is the responsibility of President Eisenhower, the State Department and the Counter-Intelligence Agency. Whatever presidential campaigning the President does from now on will be on time borrowed from his executive office.

Israel certainly did not invade Egypt in force by chance. It has an objective in mind.

The objective may be straight ahead of its invasion — the Suez Canal.

Israel is one of many countries whose interest is concentrated on the Suez Canal, particularly on its control by Egypt. Israel is the only country whose shipping has been denied the use of the canal.

This is what other countries fear might happen to their shipping, too, with Egypt in control of Suez. Thus, some of them may have found a common ground with the Israeli, many of whom believe they must assert their new country's defiance of the Arab world or be swallowed up.

That, too, is a point of view found outside Israel. There are Britons and Frenchmen who feel that it is fruitless for their governments to negotiate with Egypt or any other Arab government—that the time has come for naked force.

In Washington and in the United Nations, the United States is the spokesman for nations which have renounced force and condone its use only in case of attack. The Eisenhower administration, having extricated the country from a stalemated Korean War which started over a border raid that turned into a full-scale invasion, will not rush into a Middle Eastern situation that might find it aligned against the allies of the United States.

A squeeze play is under way. Its outcome will be revealed when it is found out who ends up in control of the Suez Canal, the object in point, more so than even the petroleum resources of the Arab world.

About Those Observers

If those three Russians who are here to observe the final stages of the 1956 national election have not locked themselves in a hotel room until the tempest dies down, here is something they should know.

Politics is like hysteria. It feeds on itself. The wilder it gets, the wilder it is going to be.

In the last few hours this week, rumors will start. They are the last touch in a political campaign. The point is that they will start—or be started—and they will sound convincing to the gullible.

A lot of nonsense goes before a national election. The Russian observers should know it has nothing to do with the election itself.

A lot of us are scared sick those fellows may go home and report that a free election is just as absurd as Joe Stalin, Adolf Hitler, Benny Mussolini and those fellows thought it was.

They need to understand that campaigning is not the real America. It is America having political hysterics. For example, when Adlai Stevenson blasted Dwight Eisenhower because the U.S. envoy to Poland was having his teeth fixed in Berlin when the Polish rioting started, that is not the once-urbane gentlemen from Illinois talking. That is a campaigner in the throes of campaign hysterics. Every man has his breaking point.

We do hope the Russians will make allowances for some of the things they are observing this October. We're not always like this.

When you see a husband who is given the bluesky pieces of a jigsaw puzzle to work out, he's henpecked.

Weigh well the hard knocks you get—it might be opportunity.

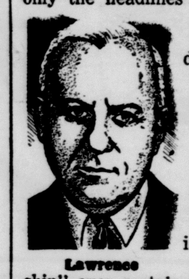
Who's The Aggressor?

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Egypt-Israel Crisis Began Prior To 1948

Who really is the aggressor in the Middle East?

The average person who reads only the headlines this week can easily be misled if he doesn't acquaint himself with the full record.



Lawrence

Here is the chronological story:

On May 14, 1948, the British "mandate" or "trusteeship" over certain Middle Eastern areas was ended. The State of Israel had been created as a result of action taken by the United Nations in December 1947. But Arab forces invaded Israel to prevent the Israeli state from functioning.

Guerrilla action was constant and on May 15, 1948, Egypt began her blockade of all Israeli ships, and particularly ordered that none should go through the Suez Canal.

The Arab-Israeli war went on till the armistice, concluded on Feb. 23, 1949.

THE BLOCKADE nevertheless continued, notwithstanding protests from the United Nations.

On Aug. 16, 1951, Great Britain, France and the United States sponsored a resolution in the Security Council of the United Nations asking Egypt to lift the blockade.

On Sept. 1, 1951, this resolution was adopted by a vote of 8 to 0, with Russia, India and China not voting.

The blockade was not lifted, and in March 1954 the security council again asked Egypt to abandon the blockade. Russia voted against the resolution. Egypt disregarded it.

On Sept. 28, 1954, the first Israeli ship attempting to run the blockade was confiscated by Egypt, notwithstanding a protest by the U.N.

On Nov. 16, 1955, Egypt extended her blockade of Israel to a point within a mile and a half of the Israeli port of Eilat, cutting off shipments to and from the east.

BORDER RAIDS have been continuous despite the armistice. Both Arab and Israeli forces have crossed the lines and disregarded armistice provisions, each usually citing provocations or reprisals.

On March 17, 1954, after an attack by Jordan forces on an Israeli bus, the mixed armistice commission didn't censure Jordan and Israel thereupon boycotted the commission.

On March 1, 1955, an Israeli raid on Egypt in the Gaza Strip was condemned by the Security Council of the U.N.

On Dec. 11, 1955, Israeli forces raided fortifications in Syria and were again condemned by the U.N., on Jan. 19, 1956.

On April 19, 1956, a cease-fire was agreed to under the auspices of the U.N.

But an armistice or a cease-fire still means that a "state of war" exists. When Nasser of Egypt seized the Suez Canal on July 26, 1956, Israel was further endangered because even shipments in other vessels destined for Israel could be kept from her if Egypt decided at any moment to refuse passage of such goods through the Suez Canal.

BUT THE BIGGEST danger to Israel has been in the refusal of Egypt to recognize the little republic and in continuously threatening her existence. So Israeli forces find it necessary today to safeguard their interests.

The British and French demand now that both Israel and Egypt withdraw their forces from the canal and that the waterway be "temporarily" occupied by the British and French forces.

The Israeli government is willing. But Egypt is not. Nasser' position in violating the 1888 treaty, which guaranteed the canal against seizure by any power, is still something that must be reviewed by some competent tribunal — either the United Nations or a commission set up by that organization.

MEANWHILE, President Eisenhower expressed on Tueday his hope that force wouldn't be used by the British or French governments. Both were persuaded once before to let the situation drift, but now show signs of impatience.

So, all in all, it's more than a matter of who is or is not the aggressor. It's a question of whether Israel, which depends for its life on shipments to and from the rest of the world, can b strangled by Egypt just because the latter has arbitrarily seized the Suez Canal.

Israel's decision to wipe out military units inside Egypt that threaten her territory from points near the border is much more a case of self-defense than it is an act of aggression.

Communism's Failure

By HARRY F. KERN

WASHINGTON

The Hungarian revolt and the events in Poland have shaken the Soviet regime and the Communist world to their foundations. That is the assessment of top authorities on the subject here. Furthermore, new outburst may sweep the satellites even as this article is being published.

There is more than a suspicion that the Gomulka regime in Poland was put there by the Russians as a last desperate measure to head off open rebellion.

Gomulka actually may be working closely with the Soviets. But he can only go so far and if he is to continue to exercise effective leadership, he must take an increasingly anti - Russian and anti-Communist stand.

The Poles, if anything, hate the Russians with more ferocity than do the Hungarians. A single misstep by Gomulka could bring about a greater explosion in Poland than is occurring in Hungary.

OBSERVERS are watching East Germany carefully, although the presence of 22 Russian divisions in that country probably means the quick and bloody suppression of any uprising.

The most immediate effects of the Communist debacle in eastern Europe may be felt in the Kremlin itself. Authorities here must rely largely on speculation but they do speculate that Nikita Khrushchev's days are numbered as the top leader in Russia.

The return of Stalinists to power seems unlikely. The chief candidate as successor to Khrushchev appears to be Anastas Mikoyan, first deputy chairman of the Council of Ministers, who actually triggered off the anti - Stalinist campaign before Khrushchev made his famous speech to the 20th Communist Party Congress last spring.

Observers here are watching the praesidium of the Central Committe of the Soviet Communist party. It is scheduled to meet in December. Any earlier meeting might indicate an upset in the Kremlin.

WHAT HAS SHAKEN and must continue to shake the Communist structure throughout the world is the revelation that ten years of the host oppressive and painstaking effort have not converted the peoples of eastern Europe to communism.

What must hit the Communist world hardest is the revelation that communism has failed where it had the greatest chance of success: In the youth.

Western observers for some years have returned from eastern Europe with appalling reports of how the minds of the young were being shaped and twisted by Communist indoctrination.

The consensus of these observers was that the Communists were winning a generation. Now it is this very generation that is in the front ranks fighting Russia and communism in Eastern Europe.

The lesson that must have become apparent to the Communist rulers is that their ideology has lost whatever grip it had on the minds of men.

THE RULERS in the Kremlin henceforth can repose no trust in the armies of the satellites, the youth and the people themselves. Can they trust the Chinese whose deply rooted civilization is the very antithesis of communism? Can they, in fact, trust their own people?

The bloody events in eastern Europe must bring back to the minds of the men in the Kremlin recolfections that took place in Russia fections that took place in Rusia itself during the Hitler invasion. This remarkable chapter is hardly known in the West.

Just after the war, I heard it from numerous German army officers. They told of entering village after village, particularly in the Ukraine, and being welcomed by the peasants with gifts of bread and salt.

Russian soldiers deserted by the thousands. If Hitler had behaved with a modicum of human decency and political wisdom, he could have turned Russia itself against Stalin and the Communists.

AS IT WAS, some 2 million Russian soldiers deserted to the Germans. A Russian army in German uniform under Gen. Vlassov actually numbered 400,000 men.

American units entering Czechoslovakia in the last days of the was were astonished to come across entire divisions of the Vlassov army.

They had kept out of the fighting in the West. They were, they said, merely waiting for the Americans to join them in the fight against the Bolsheviks.

These are the recollections that must haunt the Kremlin as reports come in that even Russian troops have gone over to the rebels in Hungary.

COPE Steps Up Election Drive

By MARTIN ARUNDEL

NEW YORK

AFL-CIO politicians are shooting the works in the 11th-hour drive to swing the votes of union members and their families into the Democratic column this year.

Between now and Nov. 6, labor politicos intend to deluge the nation's estimated 17,000,000 union duespayers with pro-Democratic literature, most of it emanatin from the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE), but some put out by individual unions.

At their shop gates, rank-and-filers will be constantly harangued by their union leaders to vote Democratic. They'll be visited at their homes by union precinct workers. Over their TV and radio sets there'll be a continuous flow of Democratic material from COPE officials.

On election day, there'll be COPE cars to take them to the polls, and COPE baby-sitters to mind the tots while the mamas cast their ballots.

A COPE spokesman explained that it was the political-labor organization's aim to "elect Democrats all down the line, from the White House to county court houses, but especially to Congress and State Legislatures."

In its campaign windup, COPE plans to expend its greatest efforts in the northern industrial states, which have the most electoral votes, and where the unions are strongest numerically, the COPE official said.

He specified New York (45 electoral votes), Pennsylvania (32), Illinois (27), Ohio (25), Michigan (20) Massachusetts (16) and Indiana (13).

Union politicians refuse to discuss how many of these states they expect the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket to carry. Most election pollsters and political pundits give New York, Illinois, Ohio, Massachusetts and Indiana to the president, with Pennsylvania and Michigan going either way.

However, the COPE spokesman said: "We still think the White House will have a new occupant on next Jan. 20. And we're convinced that both houses in the next Congress will b overwhelmingly Democratic. The polls and the prophets can be as wrong this year as they were in '48."

COPE headquarters estimates bers will vote this year. Of these that close to 9 million union memvotes, the labor politicians are out to win at least 90 per cent for the Democrats.

Their optimism stems from the "splendid results" they say they've had from AFL-CIO duespayers to COPE's drive for "voluntary contributions of $1 and up" to its political war chest.

The COPE spokesman believes the fund already is close to is announced 3 million dollars goal, and he "wouldn't be surprised if it does not have a 16 million dollar political slush fund, as some of its Republican critics have charged.

He has "no idea of how much we'll spend on this campaign. We won't know the exact figure until after the election." Also, "Walter Reuther is not dominating this campaign."

Another factor adding to COPE's confidence about the election outcome is what a New York union politician calls "Our secret weapon." It's the votes of the wives of union members.

In previous campains, union politicians paid little attention to this significant section of the electorate. They concede now that four years ago the vast majority of these feminine ballots went to President Eisenhower.

But this year COPE strategists devised a campaign to win the votes of "our women, especially the wives of our men members." It is directed by Edith Murray, a long-time laborer in the union-political vineyard. Her main pitch to housewives and others is: "Under the Republicans the cost of living has reached an all-time high."

Urbiculture Problem

By TRUMAN TWILL

If you like new words to describe old problems, try "urbiculture" on your mouth harp.

There has been an urbiculture problem as long as there has been an agriculture problem. But a weird gimmick in government has kept the urbiculture problem from getting the attention it deserves.

The gimmick is misrepreentative democracy, whose history goes back to the time when a pioneer country divided up space in the hope that population would come later.

To get things started, legislative representation was assigned by geography instead of by people. When the people came, they never succeeded in getting what was coming to them, thanks to the politicians.

The growing cities got the short end of representation — and as they continued to grow, their end kept getting shorter.

The long end still went to space, which was dominated by agriculture. This gave rise to the power of the so-called farm bloc in legislative misrepresentation. Farmers, ruthlessly exploited by politicans who made it their life's work to stay in power by hitching themselve to the real and imaginary grievances of agriculture, mining, grazing and other space-filling pursuits, such as water-power projects and lumbering, became a dog -wagging tail in representative democracy.

The only way the cities could get what was coming to them was to fight back with politics. They had to beat the farm bloc politicians at their own game, or perish. Thus did one evil beget another.

But urbiculture is now in a position to command attention. Its prospects have been improved by the automobile, which has dispersed urban populations into space once dominated by agriculture.

Throughout the country, legislators who once represented more livestock than voters are getting the hang of representing more voters than livestock. The farm bloc is losing its zing.

The fight has not been won. But things are looking up. If there were one word to sum up the cities' collective identity, it would be easier to take side — not to hurt agriculture but to curb the farm-block politicians who have cynical exploited it.

Urbiculture might be the word.

It covers everything that the hordes of people who live in cities —more than two thirds of the population — and the hordes who are nonagricultural even though living outside cities are trying to do to improve their lot.

In a national election in the not-too-distant future, there may be as much talk about the urbicultural problem as the agricultural problem.

Credit for "urbiculture" seems to belong the United State Municipal News, which used it recently in a discusion of urban issues in the national election.

Once Over

The Pooch And The Tax Blank

A man who listed his dog as a dependent on his income tax return was let off on probation by a Federal judge, and we think the judge has the support of all pooch owners. Our belief is that even the income tax officials who caused the arrest did it reluctantly, as they probably had a dog and realized the taxpayer's claim was not too farfetched.

A dog in any home is an integral part of it and is generally considered a top member of the family. In many cases Fido gets a higher rating in the matter of attention and comforts than grandpa, Aunt Susie or a resident cousin who is out of work.

A POOCH CONTRIBUTES to the making of a happy household. The more happy households, the better sense of citizenship. The better citizenship the higher the rate of honest taxpayers.

(A pup watching you make out your income tax can make you feel low if you have any urge to be dishonest, cheap and unappreciative. You know a dog is incapable of these instincts. We therefore cheer the judge, who was inclined to go easy in this issue of pooches, masters and income taxes.)

IT IS, OF COURSE, crooked to name a dog as a dependent, within the meaning of the income tax laws. No dog would be a party to it. Nevertheless Fido can be pretty much of a dependent.

There could be a temptation to use him for a deduction under "loses by storm." The damage to rugs, carpets, hall-runners, slippers, old socks, etc., by a dog can run into money. A pup on a rampage is certainly a storm center.

He could figure in medical expenses, too, since many a man gets pretty sick under the obligation of walking the dog every few hours, and sometimes breaks a leg falling downstairs to investigate a noise which set the pup to barking in the middle of the night.

IN THESE DAYS a dog is an item in any expense book. The rubber toys brought home by the wife make quite an item in budget balancing, as do flea powders, worming pills, collars, muzzles, leashes, hamburger, prepared dog foods, veterinarian bills and new pants for letter carriers and milkmen.

The overhead for a canine can exceed that for a child. So it is well to be merciful toward a man who gets a little balled up and thinks of a pooch as a dependent. In fact a dog owner might honestly come through with the following answers in holding a dog a dependent:

1—Is he a member of your household? A—He is king of the domicle.

2—Does this dependent live with you part-time or all the time? A—Full time and he never misses a meal.

3—Does he do any kind of work? A—Yes. Night watchman and a daytime checker of door-bell ringings.

4—Does he contribute anything to the home? A—Everything. The house would be a desolate place without him.

IT MIGHT BE A GOOD IDEA for Uncle Sam to permit some tax deductions although it would be difficult to fix a scale covering fairly everything from Mexican hairless pups to Great Danes.

(P.S.—Our advice to a dog owner on probation is to report regularly, bringing the pooch along but keep him out of the tax discussiion.

Overwhelming Majority Of Ohio's Editors Back Ike, Bender, O'Neill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's newspaper editors overwhelmingly support the re-election of President Eisenhower, and GOP Sen. George H. Bender and the elevation of Republican Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill to the governor's office.

This was made apparent today by the results of an Associated Press survey of an even 101 Ohio newspapers.

Not every newspaper replying to the AP's questionnaire made endorsements in every one of the three major races in Ohio and some made no editorial endorsement at all. There were eight in the latter group.

Of the 101 newspapers which replied, 58 listed themselves as normally leaning to the Republican cause, 12 leaning to the Democrats and 31 declared themselves politically independent.

The survey showed that 82 of the 91 editors who made an endorsement in next Tuesday's presidential race prefer President Eisenhower over his Democratic opponent, Adlai E. Stevenson.

Sen. Bender got the nod from 52 of the 81 editors who made a choice in the senate race. But of the 29 endorsements received by his Democratic opponent — five-term Gov. Frank J. Lausche — 22 came from newspapers which are supporting Eisenhower and O'Neill.

O'Neill has the endorsement of 79 of the 88 newspapers which made a recommendation in the gubernatorial contest. Democratic candidate Michael V. DiSalle, like Stevenson, won nine endorsements from the 101 newspapers which replied.

Replies were received from 45 daily newspapers — 14 in the so-called metropolitan group — and from 56 weekly newspapers.

In the big-city group, only the Toledo Blade is backing Stevenson and DiSalle. Eisenhower has the support of 13 and O'Neill is backed by 12. But the gap narrows on the senate race, where Bender has an 8-6 edge over Lausche.

Five big papers which support Eisenhower and O'Neill are backing Lausche. They are the Cleveland Plain Dealer, the Cleveland Press, the Youngstown Vindicator, the Akron Beacon Journal and the Columbus Citizen and the Cincinnati Enquirer. The Toledo Blade endorsements are diametrically the opposite — Stevenson, DiSalle and Bender.

Nine of the metropolitan newspapers which replied listed themselves as independent; the other five listed Republican leanings.

Among the 31 smaller-city daily newspapers which replied to the survey, six made no endorsements at all. Eighteen said they were Republican, four said they leaned to the Democratic side and nine said they are independent. Of those who expressed preferences, this was the score:

Eisenhower 22, Stevenson 2
Bender 13, Lausche 7.
O'Neil 22, DiSalle 2.

Again in this group, six newspapers which are backing both Eisenhower and O'Neill jumped the political fence to endorse Lausche.

Fifty-six weekly newspapers replied, but two made no endorsements, they reported. In this group of newspapers are 35 which call themselves Republican, 8 which list themselves as Democratic and 13 which say they are independent.

The trend established among the dailies holds for the weeklies.

President Eisenhower got 47 of the 53 endorsements in next Tuesday's top race; Stevenson got the other six. Bender outscores Lausche, 31-16, but again it must be noted that 9 of Lausche's 16 endorsements came from newspapers supporting Republicans in other races.

An oddity of the results was this: Stevenson and DiSalle got exactly the same number of endorsements—in the overall total and in each newspaper group. Each got 9, one each from the big city dailies, two each from small-city dailies and six each from the weeklies.

Four Women Sue City For Land Slide Injuries

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Four women who rode a landslide down Santa Monica's Pacific Palisades Aug. 26 are suing the city for a total of $55,000, contending it was the city's land which slid.

Mrs. Maude Hankerson, 64, Mrs. Lucille Glenn, 48, Mrs. Eugenie Baughman, 72, and Mrs. Norah K. Hayward, 63, said in their suit that they were injured when a portion of the Palisades Park broke away, dropping them— and nearly 12,000 tons of earth—on the Pacific Coast Highway.

Hot Meals For Unpredictable Weather

For the coming fall days when the weather is unpredictable, plan this warm meal-in-one dish of veal steak and lima beans.

Well-planned nutritive diets are needed for children who are now burning their energy mentally at school.

To prepare the veal, use 2 tablespoons flour, ⅛ teaspoon pepper 1 pound veal steak (½ inch thick) cut in 4 pieces, 2 tablespoons oil, 1 medium onion, sliced (½ cup), ¼ green pepper, slivered (¼ cup), 2¼ cups (No. 2 can) tomatoes and juice, 1 clove garlic, minced, pinch of basil or oregano, 3 teaspoons salt, 1 package (10 ounces) quick-frozen lima beans.

Mix flour and pepper and pound into veal steak. Brown veal in hot oil in skillet. Add onion, green pepper, tomatoes and juice, garlic, basil and salt. Cover and simmer until veal is almost tender —about 25 minutes. Then add lima beans, cover, and simmer until veal and beans are tender — about 20 minutes; stir occasionally. If mixture seems too dry, add a little water. Makes 4 servings.

GOP Attacked On Middle East

Fracas Brought Into Campaign In Ohio

By The Associated Press

The Israel - Egypt fracas has landed smack in the middle of Ohio's political campaigning.

It's the Democrats who are having the most to say about the flare-up in the Middle East. They are mocking the Republican's slogan of "Peace and Prosperity."

"The voice of the United States, which a few years ago thundered, has been relegated to the side," declared Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) in Toledo Wednesday night where he also boosted the gubernatorial candidacy of Michael V. DiSalle.

"The Republicans cried, 'Peace, peace,' but there is no peace," Kennedy told a crowd estimated at 4,000. "We are split from our traditional allies, Britain, France and Israel, and find ourselves trying to choose between them and Col. Nasser and his allies. It is due to this administration's unwarranted complacency."

DiSalle joined in the hooting of the GOP slogan, commenting wryly: "Peace and prosperity—peace in the Middle East and prosperity in the Middle West."

The latter phrase referred to what DiSalle termed discontent among midwestern farmers over a squeeze between rising costs and decreasing income.

DiSalle's opponent, Republican C. William O'Neill, took his campaign to Warren today and discussed state problems. Speaking of the highway problem in that area, he said in a prepared text:

"It is impossible today to drive from this area to the larger population centers in the central and southern parts of the state by a reasonably direct route without using some roads that are less than 60 per cent adequate.

"We must have major north-south highways so that the commerce of this area, as well as the ordinary motorist, can have easy and safe access to the rest of the state."

Meanwhile, Mahoning County Democrats announced that their party's vice presidential candidate, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, would make another trip to Ohio Friday to make a major speech at the Pick-Ohio Hotel in Youngstown at 9:30 a. m.

And a group of Democratic members of the State Legislature continued to needle O'Neill's record in the Legislature. The group said in statement:

"The Republican candidate, when he was minority leader of the House of Representatives in the 98th General Assembly, many times took the floor to speak about economy in government and how he favored holding down costs.

"That was m i n o r i t y leader O'Neill.

"When the same Mr. O'Neill was elected attorney general, he took a different view of finances. When the appropriations for the attorney general's office came before the General Assembly, this same 'economist' came before the finance committee and asked a huge additional appropriation for the operation of the attorney general's office.

"This doesn't seem to be consistent on the part of this self-styled champion of economy."

In the senatorial race, Republican Sen. George H. Bender criticized his opponent, Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, for calling a special session of the Legislature to consider outlawing utility strikes.

The governor called the session for Nov. 9 after he attended a conference in his office Wednesday on the southern Ohio telephone strike.

Bender was scheduled for a luncheon speech today before the Dayton Bar Assn. and a rally in Youngstown tonight.

FRENCH CONSULATE SET AFIRE IN JERUSALEM — The French consulate in the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem burns after being set afire by a mob. French Consul Merrien and four members of his staff fought off the mob with rifles from the roof. Police reinforcements later drove off the attackers. Recent French arrest of five Algerian nationalist leaders have brought on a wave of anti-French rioting in the Arab world.

Meter Reader Goes On Trial For Slaying

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 43-year-old water meter reader goes on trial in Criminal Court here today on a charge that he stabbed an attractive 34-year-old Cincinnati socialite to death in her swank home last April 11.

It is a case which for 45 days seemed to have been a "perfect crime."

There was no known motive for the slaying of Mrs. Audrey Evers Pugh. She had no enemies that police could find. Numerous suspects were questioned and then on May 26 came the announcement from police that:

"The meter reader did it."

The meter reader — Robert V. Lyons—had been questioned previously in the case and released.

Police said Lyons admitted the slaying and said he did it after Mrs. Pugh reprimanded him for coming to the wrong door of her home. His statement quoted her as saying, "Don't make a fool of yourself."

H sistatement said he feared she might make a report to the city waterworks department where he had worked for 20 years and that he followed her into the kitchen for an explanation. The statement quoted Lyons as saying Mrs. Pugh picked up a knife and then slapped him and that he took the knife away from her and stabbed her.

Lyons since has repudiated the alleged confession and it is expected to be one of the main points of issue in the trial.

Selection of the jury also may be a problem since the case has been one of the most widely publicized in Cincinnati since the Anna Marie Hahn murder case.

Another point that may brin lengthy arguments is an anticipated attempt by Defense Atty. William F. Hopkins to have the first degree murder charge stricken on grounds there was no premeditation.

Mrs. Pugh's body was found by her husband, William Worthington Pugh, a Cincinnati printing executive, when he returned home from his office.

He said at the time that Mrs. Pugh was not feeling well and had remained in bed that morning. When she was found, she was clad only in night dress and a robe.

SOMEWHERE IN EGYPT — Under a heavy smoke screen, Israeli troops cross the border into Egypt. Israel claims its forces have driven to within 10 miles of the Suez Canal. Egypt, on the other hand, said its forces have won control of the Sinai Desert battleground in a "desperate fight with Israeli invaders."

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Time is now to stop being playboys of this Western world. For all will not be quiet on the Western front for long — nor on the Eastern front either. Word has been sped from Moscow to its global labor network to give many major cities of the democratic world a blood bath.

Victor Reisel

The Kremlin cannot long take workers' revolts behind their own rusted iron curtain without attempting to force the police and armies of non-Communist nations to shoot at rioting workers, too.

This the Russians can easily maneuver. Despite alarms in this column and warnings from other informed circles in this field, Western statesmen have long ignored and failed to woo the workers of the world. So today leftist - led unions are the Soviets' secret weapons.

Out of the 160 million members of unions around the globe, the Russians brag they control some 90 million.

At this moment the U.S. government has virtually no influence among the remaining 70 million.

IT IS THROUGH this network of Red unions that the Moscow strategists can bathe big free cities in blood and force non-Communist police and military men to shoot down workers in the streets.

Lest you think this is to macabre a maneuver even for the Russians, let me point to Singapore where the police report that 16 were killed and 150 wounded in last week's rioting.

After burying their dead, the British police airlifted special Gurkha troops into the city and moved in on two unions — the pro-Communist Factory and Shopworkers Union and the Singapore Bus Workers Union.

These outfits are tied up with the Peoples' Action party. The police rounded up 450 members. The gendarmerie had to heave tear gas and smash their way through barricades manned by armed union officials.

The police dispatched word back to London that the Bus Workers Union was responsible for the bloody riots of May 1955.

ALL THIS IS DIRECTED out of the central Asiatic headquarters of the Russians' World Federation of Trade Unions — which has provoked labor riots causing the death of as many as 400 textile workers in India not too long ago.

In the flaming Near East, the Soviets have whipped into shape a labor outfit called the "Trade Union Federation of Arab Workers," which ties together unions of Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Libya.

Officially the documents out of Moscow state that "the general council of the World Federation of Trade Unions acclaims the establishment of this federation and declares that it fully supports its just struggle against imperialism, for national independence and for the social and economic demands of the Arab working people."

This means that these unions truly are military units. I give it to you as a fact that the pro-Communists who influence these Near Eastern outfits know where every oil pipeline and pumping station is.

THESE UNITS are ready to slash and sabotage the West. They are armed, just as the Singapore unions were.

There is a pro - Communist operator known as Abdullah Diallo, vice - president of the WFTU in charge of stirring trouble in North Africa. He recently turned in reports to his Soviet chiefs on just how he can stir revolt in Sudan, North Africa, the Middle East, Southeast Asia and even Latin America.

Officially Abdullah is secretary general of the regional Trades Unions in French Sudan.

I give you the Asiatic, Near Eastern and African network first. But don't for a second believe this couldn't happen in the "more civilized" areas of the world.

THE RUSSIAN global labor chiefs recently boasted to their brass in Moscow that their unions have provoked rolling strikes "in France, Great Britain, Italy and West Germany, as well as in Denmark, Finland, Norway, Holland and even in Spain last spring.

There is no doubt that this is the reason for the establishment of united syndical (labor) organizations in Iceland, Canada, Tunisia, Peru and even in a country like Uruguay. Success in this respect was very great."

It is not inconceivable that the handful of Communist - controlled unions in the U.S., too, will try bloody strikes.

Files $35,000 Suit As Result Of Car Mishap

LISBON — A jury of 10 women and two men were seated late Wednesday morning to hear the testimony in a suit in which John F. Cof of Lisbon RD 3, asks $35,000 for personal injuries allegedly received in a car mishap April 20, 1955 on Rt. 45, two miles north of Lisbon.

Kathaleen Huston of McKinley Ave. is the defendant.

The petition claims that Cof's car was struck from the rear by the defendant's auto after the former stopped for traffic ahead. The defendant admits striking the plaintiff's car, and the case involves the amount of personal injuries caused the plaintiff.

The jury is as follows: Dorothy Swaney of East Liverpool; Delbert Williams, Jane Reese and Dorothy Persohn of Wellsville; Ruthanna Malloy, Hazel Painchaud, Bernice Melitschka, Martha Bailey, Margaret Hammell and Richard Karlis of Salem; Lillian Weikart of Leetonia; and Emily Hughes of East Palestine. Hazel Meek of Negley was named alternate.

21,000 Idle As Firestone Strike Begins

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Charging that Firestone Tire e& Rubber Co. refused to bring contract provisions up to the level of contracts held with other rubber companies, the United Rubber Workers today struck Firestone plants in eight cities, idling some 21,000 workers.

Meanwhile, company and union negotiators were to go back to work here today in efforts to reach a settlement.

Negotiators bargained through out the day Wednesday and right up to the midnight deadline for strike action set by the union.

When the deadline arrived, a union spokesman said, there was "no other alternative" than to take the strike action approved in a previous vote by the membership of the eight locals. The spokesman said 90 per cent of those voting favored strike action if necessary.

Negotiators refused to divulge the nature of issues blocking settlement.

Plants struck are in Fall River, Mass., Akron, Ohio, Noblesville and New Castle, Ind., Los Angeles, Memphis, Tenn., Pottstown, Pa., and De Moines, Iowa.

The company said in a statement that most of the union's 60 demands for contract changes had been met when the strike was called. One of the demands blocking a settlement, it said, calls for an extra paid holiday in addition to the seventh paid holiday granted last year.

Other issues still in dispute, Firestone said, were unions demands for granting service credit and seniority for time not worked and for what the company called undue influence in Firestone's dealings with outside contractors.

The union had no comment on issues blocking settlement.

Lausche

and "we will not be pushed into asking for the (National) Guard."

Lausche emphasized that legislation he will ask the special session to consider "will not at all deal with private industry . . . but will deal with public utilities."

"We think," Flohr said at the conference, "an effort should be made to provide emergency service with local supervisory personnel insofar as possible. If that fails, we won't be hesitant to ask for the National Guard."

"If the guard is asked," Lausche interrupted, "it will go in at full strength."

Robert Moulton, chairman of the state utilities commission, said there will be a public hearing on whether the company should be ordered to provide emergency service.

Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the state highway patrol, told the conference his investigations showed that "if outside people hadn't been manning the exchanges, there wouldn't have been any disturbances."

Mingle apparently was referring to union statements that the company had brought in employes of General Telephone Co. of Ohio to work the struck exchanges. General Telephone is Ohio Consolidated's parent company.

Union-management negotiations were scheduled to resume Friday in Cleveland. Of 16 issues which have deadlocked the talks, four are considered most serious — union shop, supervisors as union members, a "no strike" clause and arbitration of grievances.

The governor got the ball rolling on a possible settlement of one main issue—whether supervisors should belong to the union.

He telephoned the regional office of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) in Cincinnati which promised a quick hearing to determine whether supervisors should be included in the bargaining unit.

Then Lausche phoned Boyd Leedom, NLRB chairman in Washington. Leedom, according to Lausche, said because both union and company were not willing to ask for the hearing, "it presents a problem, but I don't think it is unsurmountable."

Sid Griffith, company attorney, said Ohio Consolidated would get in touch with the NLRB today to get the hearing started.

STORE WINDOWS SAY: 'VOTE TUESDAY' — The city's store windows today are covered with colorful witches, ghosts and goblins, all urging Salemites to vote, thanks to Salem High School art students who Wednesday afternoon took paint, brushes, and designs downtown and set to work.

The idea, sponsored by the League of Women Voters, is to remind citizens to go to the polls in the general election Tuesday. Contest prizes were awarded.

Students (l.to r.) Carol Lippiatt, sophomore; Glenda Lyons, senior, and Sandra Weidenhof, senior, are shown above painting stacks of hay, witches and a scarecrow on the Strouss' store window. The finished painting, Miss Lyons' work, which received the $3 second prize award, has this inscription: "It doesn't matter witch way you vote, just vote."

Joyce Bailey was awarded first prize of $5 for her papier mache figure and painting on the Bunn store window; and Lance Woodruff third prize of $2 for his work on the Broadway Lease window. Honorable mention went to Patricia Elliott who used papier mache on the Penny window.

Judges were Mrs. Robert Potter, Matthew Mawhinney, Miss Lillian Schroeder. Mrs. Jean Bissett, Salem High School art instructor, supervised the groups.

viet-built MIG airforces on the ground.

British pilots said they had destroyed 14 Egyptian planes on the ground, including Soviet MIG15 fighters. The pilots said they had encountered almost no resistance.

It was limited, they said, to ineffective antiaircraft fire and a lone fighter which attempted to intervene.

The air strikes, beginning at dawn after a night of British and French bombing attacks, were aimed at the airfields of Abu Sueir, Fayid and Kabrit in the canal zone, Inchass, 35 miles from Cairo, and Kasfareet.

The reported sinking of the Egyptian warship in the canal, followed the British announcement another Egyptian warship had been sunk in the Red Sea off Suez, at the eastern approaches to the canal. An Admiralty spokesman said the Egyptian frigate Domiat went down under the guns of a British cruiser.

The Allied high command in Cyprus announced that air sweeps were renewed at dawn after initial strikes Wednesday night.

Headquarters of the Egyptian Armed Forces in Cairo said raids on "All Egyptian Aerodromes" were made throughout the night and were "still continuing."

A Cairo radio broadcast, heard in Beirut, said British planes bombed Cairo at 10 a.m. "hitting unarmed men and women."

A British Air Ministry source here said Venom fighter - attack planes had strafed five Egyptian airfields.

Attacks were expected to go on throughout the day, the spokesman said.

The British gave this picture of the raids:

The bombers dropped delayed action bombs with fuses of different lengths on Egyptian fields Wednesday night. He said the fuse devices were used to give Egyptian personnel a chance to get away safely.

Planes on the ground, hangars and service installations were destroyed. Pilots said they met ineffective antiaircraft fire. One pilot reported an attempted interception by an Egyptian Meteor night fighter.

Reports said the figher - attack planes pounded the Egyptian field in low - level runs using both rockets and cannon fire.

County Absentee Ballot Total May Reach 1,200

The County Election Board at East Liverpool will close its books at 4 this afternoon on distribution of civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the general election Tuesday.

The total number of absentee ballots stood at 1,165, icluding 292 obtained by men and women in the armed forces under the "Soldier Voting" Law and 873 issued to absentee and disabled civilians.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, predicted the total will be well over 1,200 when the deadline for civilian ballots passes. Many are expected to vote in person at the board's office this afternoon, he said.

To be counted at the polls Tuesday, the ballots must be back at the board's office by noon Friday. They will be distributed to the proper precincts with election supplies.

Applications for ballots under the "Soldier Voting" Law must be filed with the board by noon Saturday. Members of the armed forces are permitted to vote in person at the board's office until noon on election day.

HURT IN FALL FROM CAR

Kenneth Barnett, five-year-old son of Mrs. Delores Barnett of 827 Ridge St., Newton Falls, was admitted to Salem City Hospital shortly before 11 a.m. today for treatment of deep facial lacerations.

The child was injured when he fell from a moving car in the driveway at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Emma Bean of Berlin Center.

DINNER IS POSTPONED

LISBON — The district state highway patrol auxiliary dinner meeting scheduled for Saturday night at Warren has been postponed until a later date because of strike violence in Portsmouth.

A large number of patrolmen who wished to attend have been sent to Portsmouth for extra duty, according to Capt. Merle Burson of the Columbiana County patrol auxiliary.

Heat apricot preserves and orange juice and use as a pudding sauce. Or add a little brandy flavoring to the preserves and use as a cake filling.

Kefauver Says U. S. At Brink Of War Again

BOSTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver charged today that "the Eisenhower - Dulles foreign policy has brought us to the brink of war for the fifth time in four years."

The vice-presidential candidate stormed into New England, hammering at the latest Democratic campaign theme — that administration policies are largely responsible for Middle East fighting and what he termed the breakdown of understandings with Britain and France.

Kefauver's talk, prepared for a rally at Boston University, was part of a back-breaking schedule of 10 speeches in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, two news conferences and several informal handshaking sessions.

"Our so-called forein policies are utterly bankrupt," he said.

Kefauver opened up Wednesday night at Bay City, Mich., on the Middle Eastern policies pursued by President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

He said Eisenhower's television and radio report on foreign affairs "revealed for all the world to see the deterioration of American influence in the world."

He said the United States, once the leader of the free world, now finds itself without friends, its "counsel disdained," and is "left standing flatfooted and open mouthed while world events pass us by."

County School Cage Tourney Plans Mapped

LISBON — The County Class A baketball tournament will be held at United Local School on four nights starting Feb. 19 with two games, county school heads decided at a meeting Wednesday noon at United School. One game will be played Feb. 20, and one on the 21st. The championship game will be played Saturday night, Feb. 23.

Five schools will compete, Fairfield, New Waterford, Salineville, Beaver Local and United.

Mrs. Marilyn Solak, assistant county superintendent, will be in charge of the tournament, and her husband, Frank Solak, principal of United School, will act as manager. In 1958 the tournament will be held at Beaver Local School, according to plans.

created by action undertaken against Egypt" and the council had been unable to act because of the British and French vetoes.

The U. S. resolution which they vetoed now will become a propoposal for action by the assembly. It calls upon Israel and Egypt (1) to cease fire at once; (2) upon Israel to withdraw its armed forces from Egypt; (3) upon all U. N. members to withhold military, economic and financial aid from Israel until she pulls back, and (4) on all U. N. members to refrain from the threat or use of force in the Middle East.

The latter aimed squarely at Britain and France.

Korean Bonus, 4-Year Term For Senators

2 State Amendments To Be Decided On Next Tuesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two state issues—both proposed constitutional amendments—will face Ohio voters next Tuesday.

One proposes a state bonus for veterans of the Korean conflict. The other would provide four-year—instead of two-year—terms for state senators.

The Korean bonus must be offered to the voters as a constitutional amendment because financing it requires a bond issue far in excess of Ohio's $750,000 debt limit as set by the Ohio Constitution.

If a majority of those voting on the Korean bonus proposal favor it, the state will be authorized to issue up to 90 million dollars in bonds. These would be retired by a special levy on real and personal property.

The bonus proposal provides payments of up to $400 to legal residents of Ohio who served in the armed forces between June 25, 1950, and July 1953. Those dates represent the beginning and ending of hostilities in Korea.

Payments would be $10 for each month of domestic service and $15 for each month of foreign service—but with a $400 maximum. An estimated 280,000 veterans would be eligible for the payments.

Ohio provided similar bonuses for veterans of both Worlds Wars. The World War I bonus bonds long since have been retired. But Ohip still owes about 100 million dollars on the 300-million-dollar World War II bonus.

Two years ago, Ohio voters rejected a constitutional change to give members of both Houses in the General Assembly four-year terms. The substitute proposal—to grant longer terms to members of the Senate only—is up for the voters' decision Tuesday.

If the voters approve longer Senate terms, half of the 34 state senators elected in 1958 would serve four-year terms. The other half elected in that year would serve two years.

But in 1960, senators in districts still with two-year terms would be elected to four-year terms. That would provide staggered terms and also means half the Senate would stand for election every two years.

Backers of the four-year term proposal say it would give senators added prestige. They said most senators must campaign in several counties while their colleagues in the House make their races in a single county.

They also point out that U. S. senators serve six years while U. S. representatives are elected every two years.

Opponents say two-year terms for state senators should be continued because they make senators, as well as House members, more responsive to the will of the people.

Benson Says More Farmers Like Ike

CHICAGO (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Benson has claimed growing support by farmers of the Eisenhower administration's farm program, and says a reported drop in farm prices during September was "slight."

Benson made the statements in Chicago Wednesday. He said that in all 15 states he visited on a campaign tour he found more farmers favoring President Eisenhower's policies than in previous tours.

Asked to explain his department's announcement of a drop in September farm prices, Benson said the decline was "slight — much less than I anticipated." He said the drop was due to a seasonal market and is an annual occurrance, adding that "agriculture is basically sound."

$641,434 In Taxes Turned Up By Agents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers reports $641,434 in intangible taxes has been turned up by tax agents in the last two years.

Bowers said Wednesday the $641,434 represents intangible tax liability against holders of notes and land contracts that were not listed on tax returns.

Tax agents arrived at the figure after checking county courthouse records against personal property tax returns. So far, 55 of Ohio's 88 counties have been checked.

Bowers said his tax agents uncover about six million dollars annually in auditing personal property tax returns.

Stadium Lighting Debt To Be Liquidated At Columbiana

Will Propose Idea To Village Civic Groups

COLUMBIANA —A movement to liquidate the debt on the flood lights at the football stadium in Firestone Park was launched at a meeting in the mayor's office on Tuesday evening of representatives of village council, the board of affairs and the board of education.

The project will be submitted to civic groups by a committe appointed by President K. T. Gormley of the park board, who presided over the meeting, called at his request by Mayor E. L. Calvin. The committee of representatives of groups is: Dr. K. P. Murphy, Rotary; Gormley, Kiwanis; Herbert Souder, American Legion; D. W. Bailey and Gayl Gloss, Parent Teacher Organization; J. K. Harding, Chamber of Commerce; Wilder Foertch, Booster Club. Mayor Calvin is an honorary member of the committee, and a representative of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be enlisted.

The lights, which are of a superior character, were installed in 1946 at a cost of $9,000, for which the village gave a note, to be paid by the school athletic association from receipts for admissions to games, but receipts have been very low in some years.

Football has been running a deficit for several years and has been sustained by the Booster Club.

Some $4,500, with interest, remains due on the lights, which it will be the object of the civic project to pay.

The park board, village council and the board of affairs will share equally the $900 expense of next spring's painting of steel poles that support the lights which were erected free of charge by the Diamond Steel Construction Co. of Youngstown as a favor to the community.

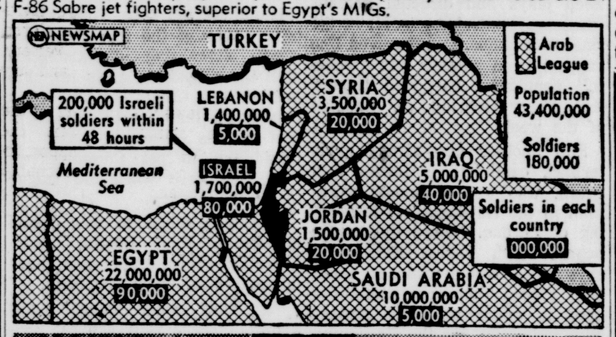
Strength: Israeli vs. Arabs—

Until Russia began supplying arms to Egypt a year ago, U. S. military authorities believed Israel's armed forces were militarily superior to all the Arab states combined. Soviet arms aid has tended to upset the picture, but they believe Israelis still have the edge in effectiveness. Israel has advantage of highly trained reserves which includes almost every ablebodied citizen, including women. Arabs have few, if any, armed reserves. Egypt has superior aircraft. But, beyond a "one-shot" offensive, it is thought that Egyptians cannot yet maintain and operate the jets on a sustained basis. Israel also has advantage of a unified command and interior lines of communication.

Israel has about 300 Sherman tanks from World War II, with 75-mm. guns and some French light tanks. Highly efficient air force mainly British Meteor jets and American F-51 piston planes. Ordered, but yet undelivered are 24 F-86 Sabre jet fighters, superior to Egypt's MIGs.



Egypt has about 125 British Meteor and Vampire jets, plus 125 recently acquired Soviet MIG-15's and 40 IL-28 light jet bombers. Has some 200 tanks, including 100 Joseph Stalin III's, with 122-mm. guns. On order are between 200 and 300 Valentine tanks from Belgium.

Stevenson Seeks Equal Time To Answer Eisenhower's Talk

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Adali E. Stevenson canceled three upstate New York political talks today. He prepared to fly to New York City and seek free radio and television time to further his contention that Eisenhower administration policies have "brought the whole world" to the brink of war.

The hostilities in Egypt virtually crowded out all other issues in the Democratic candidate's strategy as he entered the final stage of a campaign.

Stevenson has asked "equal" time" to reply to President Eisenhower's 15-minute talk Wednesday night over major TV and radio networks concerning the Middle East crisis.

Cancellation of the upstate New York talks apparently was dictated by the availability in New York City of nationwide TV and radio network facilities.

Stevenson seemed confident the time he sought would be granted under federal communications regulations requiring equal time for candidates between conventions and elections.

Wednesday night he asked a tumultuous audience in Pittsburgh's Hunt Armory to support "efforts to end the war between Egypt and Israel" but said "I cannot promise to support or respect a foreign policy that has bluffed and blundered the United States into a shattering diplomatic disaster."

"It has brought the whole world to the brink of another war that Mr. Dulles (secretary of state) may not have planned but which he did a lot to cause," he said.

An audience which fire department officials estimated at 12,500 gave him a roaring reception.

He hammered away at Republican foreign policy in rallies in New York City during a day in which a steady downpour of rain cut down his street crowds and forced him to do his speaking indoors in halls of limited capacity.

Companies' 3rd Quarter Profit Down, But Still Equals 1955

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A disappointing third quarter for many companies has pulled high soaring profits down for the first nine months of the year. They are now even with last year for American business taken as a whole.

This is still a very high level. But it breaks the stream of year-by-year gains which had characterized corporate earnings since 1952.

This is the indication today from a survey of the first 502 corporations to report net profits after taxes for the first nine months of 1956. Combined, their earnings this year trail those of the same period in 1955 by 0.5 per cent. This is only a preliminary report. Hundreds more will make public their earnings statements in the weeks ahead and the final figure could be different.

The combined drop so far shows up despite record earnings reported by many companies and despite the fact that two out of three of the 502 corporations show increases over last year's figures.

The declining third, however,—especially those in the auto, steel, farm equipment industries and individual giants in the chemical, electronics, and aircraft fields—took a deep enough plunge to outweigh the gainers and bring the total, or average, down.

But many of those who reported smaller profits this time declare that the final months of this year look so good for their busines that much of the drop will be erased.

The steel strike last summer gets much of the blame for poor third quarter figures which pulled down the gains made in the first of the year. Steel companies, railroads serving them and some of steel's customers suffered.

The auto industry has had its own sales troubles, but hopes they're over now.

Declining farm incomes show up in the profit and loss statements of the farm equipment makers and also in those of chemical companies making fertilizers. Building material firms suffered from the decline in home building.

But for many corporations the story was simply this: Operating costs—labor and materials—have been rising faster than sales volume or prices for their finished products.

On the other side of the picture there are glowing reports from many of the oil companies, coal companies, and nonferrous mining companies—although with the last the report is far from unanimous.

Middle East War May Curb Olympic Games

Nations Involved May Be Dropped

Games Scheduled To Begin In 3 Weeks

MELBOURNE (AP) —Whether the Olyympic games will open here three weeks from today as scheduled is a question that has all Melbourne talking and organizing officials obviously worried.

The point is if Australia lines up with Britain as she did in both world wars, will the International Olympic Committee cancel Melbourne's charter to stage the games starting Nov. 22?

Two top organizers, Wilfred S. S. Kent Hughes, chairman of the Olympic organizing committee and Lt. Gen. Sir William Bridgeford, chief executive officer, conferred today on possible effects the military action in the Middle East will have on the games.

Both told The Associated Press they think the games will go on as scheduled.

But there is a feeling among Olympic officials that the IOC might ask Great Britain, France and Israel to withdraw their teams. Traditionally countries at war do not take part in the Olympic games although Otto Mayer, chancellor of the IOC, said in Lausanne, Switzerland, there is no Olympic rule aainst it.

Kent Hughes, trying to keep separate his role as a member of the Australian House of Representatives and chairman of the organizing committee, decided not to go to Canberra today to hear Prime Minister Menzies' report on the Middle East situation.

Gophers' Gehring Lineman Of Week

By JIM KLOBUCHAR

MINNEAPLIS (AP) — Persistent Perry Gehring of Minnesota almost ran out of positions but never ran out of patience. His reward today was selection as the Associated Press lineman of the week.

Gehring's smashing end play was credited with contributing vitally to the unbeaten Gophers' 20-7 upset of Michigan last Saturday.

It was a major milestone for the Yankton, S. D. native who spent his first season at Minnesota last year walking a treadmill that went from fullback to center to guard but never to the varsity.

He saw no action at all in 1955. But Coach Murray Warmath told his aides: "There's just got to be a place for a boy who wants to play football as badly as this one does."

By the time the season opened this fall he was up to the second team. Steady, aggressive performances since then climaxed in the biggest day of Gehring's college career at Ann Arbor Saturday.

He caught an important pass in the first stages of the Gopher comeback from a 7-0 Michigan lead and later delivered several big tackles when the Wolverines were trying to counter Minnesota's second half outburst. Offensively he was stronger than ever.

And two days ago Warmath made Gehring's success story complete by promoting him to the first team.

Although he is a junior scholastically, the 5-11, 190-pounder has two more years of competition remaining after this one.

Marion Candidate To Manage Indians

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Marty Marion, now a strong candidate for the Cleveland Indians managership with Leo Durocher out of the picture, says he is awaiting a visit from Hank Greenberg, Cleveland general manager.

The 39-year-old former St.Louis Cardinal shortstop, who recently resigned as Chicago White Sox manager, said Greenberg told him Friday he would confer with him in St. Louis this week. He didn't pinpoint the time.

"I haven't made up my mind yet," Marion said when asked if he was available for the job. "I don't want to comment on the situation until I've talked to Greenberg."

Al Lopez resigned as Cleveland manager and was signed by the White Sox for Marion's former position.

The club has extended an invito ntfor all football players and their parents to attend a Dutch Lunch at the next Booster meeting, Thursday, Nov. 8.

That includes the mothers and fathers of all the Quaker teams, freshmen, JV's and varsity squad players.

Salem Reserves, Freshmen Chalk Up Winning Seasons

Salem's High School junior varsity and freshmen football teams completed their seasons last week, with both squads sporting winning records. The freshmen won four and lost three games, while the JV's finished with two victories, one loss, and a tie.

The freshman victory list includes Sebring 14-0, Stanton of Alliance 12-6, Columbiana 20-6, and East Liverpool 21-14. Losses were to Boardman 20-0, East Liverpool 20-19, and Alliance State Street 19-0.

Junior Varsity wins were over Greenford 33-19, and United Local 32-0. They lost to North Lima 21-7, and their tie was with Steubenville Big Red Reserves 14-14.

Head Football Coach Earle Bruce commented on the two squads, stating that the freshmen had an impressive record, and that the yearling's had some bright spots, showing a desire to play, a thirst for learning, and a team spirit most of the time.

He said that the JV's, playing only four games, looked very impressive, showing good spirit, and great desire to learn and play.

Braves 1st, Giants Last In Attendance

CINCINNATI (AP)—Four teams in the National League drew more than a million fans at home during the 1956 baseball season but the New York Giants—representing the largest city—failed even to attract as many as 630,000 fans.

The Giants, who, of course, must share fan allegiance with the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Yankees, finished a dead last in attendance with only 629,-179.

Those figures were contained in a league headquarters report Wednesday which showed the loop, as a whole, drew 8,649,567 fans, the biggest total since 1949 when there were 9,484,718 paying customers. The 1955 league total was 7,674,-412.

Milwaukee, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and St. Louis were the clubs which bettered the million mark in home attendance. Milwaukee, with 2,-046,331, passed the two million mark for the third straight year. Cincinnati's 1,125,928 marked the first time the Redlegs ever had drawn more than a million fans at home.

The only clubs to show decreases from 1955 were New York and Chicago.

Five clubs—Brooklyn, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, New York and St. Louis drew more than a million customers on the road. In 1956, only Brooklyn and New York were over the million mark in road attendance.

PREPARE FOR XAVIER GAME

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP)—Passing, defense against it and sharpening the attack have been stressed in Colorado A & M football drills this week.

The Aggies step out of the Skyline Conference Saturday for a game with Xavier University in Cincinnati.

Coach Don Mullison had his squad throwing plenty of passes Wednesday. On defense, emphasis continued against an expected Xavier aerial attack.

Plunging Sarlo Loses To Miceli

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) —Truck driver Carlo Sarlo's debut as a main event welterweight was anything but sensational.

But his stampeding tactics were.

In fact, the Chicago welterweight displayed such bull - like rushes Wednesday night that at times it looked as if the red-wrapped ring ropes at Chicago Stadium were attracting him.

Joe Miceli, 10th ranking 145-pounder from New York and a veteran of 84 fights, went through the motions of a matador waving his cape in a bull ring from the fifth round on and carved out a 10-round unanimous decision.

Judge John Bray scored it 49-43 under the five-point "must" system. Judge Jim McManus called it 49 - 39 and referee Bernard Weissman scored 49-42, the same as the Associated Press.

Sarlo, who weighed 148, a stocky newcomer to the national television audience, had more heart than talent and his charges at Miceli, 146½, appeared like off-tackle smashes of a fullback. Several times he nearly plunged head-first through the ropes as Miceli pirouetted around him.

Iowa, Minnesota Stars Boomed For All-America

By JERY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — The two surprises of the Big Ten football race, unbeaten Iowa and Minnesota, finally have tossed a hat into the midwest's All-America ring.

The area's screening board for the AP honor team sat up today and took notice of these two clubs which have been belting every body in the chops with little or no fanfare.

Notre Dame's Paul Hornung and Purdue's Len Dawson have been heralded as All - America quarterback prospects for weeks, but now comes Minnesota's Bobby Cox, who baffled Michigan completely with his daring play last Saturday.

As the Gopers spilled the Wolverines, 20-7, Cox scored twice on keep plays and directed another Minnesota touchdown — all in the final 20 minutes. Cox received fine support from another late "write-in" candidate, 190-pound Gopher end, Perry Gehring, AP lineman of the week.

Still another new strong quarterback candidate is Iowa's Ken Ploen, who was a smooth workman in the Hawkeyes' 21-20 shading of Purdue. Before the season began, Coach Forest Evashevski says Iowa would sink or swim with Ploen. Then, everybody figured it would be more sinking than swimming for the Hawkeyes.

Meanwhile, one of the midwest's hottest All - America prospects, halfback Clarence Peaks of Michigan State, was sidelined for the season by injury — a sad blow to a great performer.

But into Peaks' shoes as a prime Big Ten halfback candidate has stepped Illinois' Abe Woodson, who almost singlehandedly upset Michigan State's top - ranked Spartans.

Illinois may be unpredictable thus far, but not Woodson, who has been a ball of fire since the season opened with better than a 6-yard rushing average and a 38-yard punting mark on 24 kicks.

Another new Iowan in the All-America listings is halfback Bill Happel, the Hawkeyes' bread-and-butter back, who also excels on defense. And in a doggone good Iowa line, ends Frank Gilliam and Jim Gibbons have been exceptional performers.

Other midwest players tabbed by the board for the first time this week are three Ohio State performers, 168-pound end Leo Brown halfback Don Clark and center Tom Dillman.

Despite Notre Dame's 40-0 rout by Oklahoma, a new Irish name was tossed in the All - America hopper, Ed Sullivan, a fine center.

Western Grid Stars Lead In Offense Totals

By The Associated Press

Football teams west of the Mississippi seem to have cornered the market on offensive stars with one of the brightest a speedy halfback from Utah State.

Led by Jack Hill, who has amassed 90 points for the individual scoring leadership in the nation, western teams captured the top two positions in three offensive departments, NCAA Service Bureau statistics showed today.

Hill has accumulated his total on 13 touchdowns and 12 extra points to lead his nearest competitor by 20 points. Wyoming's Jim Crawford is runnerup on 10 TDS and a like number of one-pointers.

In the pass receiving department, Washington State's Bill Steiger heads a host of west coast ends. Steiger has latched onto 26 tosses for two touchdowns and 376 yards. Runnerup is Paul Camera of Stanford's Rose Bowl bound squad. Camera has been on the end of 24 passes.

UCLA's Kirk Wilson is the punting leader, averaging 45.5 yards a kick to best second - place Larry Barnes of Colorado A&M, who is maintaining a 45.2 per punt mark.

Tommy Henrich Signs As Coach For Giants

NEW YORK (AP) —Tommy Henrich has joined the "enemy." For years a fixture in right field with the New York Yankees, Henrich returns to baseball in 1957 after a six-year lapse as a coach under manager Billy Rigney of the New York Giants.

Henrich turned down an offer from the Yankees to manage a club in their minor league farm system after the 1951 World Series.

He has been working in radio and television in recent months.

Horace Stoneham, Giant president, announced the appointment Wednesday.

DONS BROWN UNIFORM

CLEVELAND (AP) — Jim Ray Smith, former Baylor football star, took off his Army uniform and put on a Cleveland Browns uniform Wednesday.

Smith, who won't be discharged officially until some time next month, went to work training at defensive right end. For Baylor the 6-foot, 225-pound rookie was a tackle.

Officiating In Pro Football Stirs Dispute

The Associated Press

Whether officiating in the National Football League is good or bad apparently depends on a team's position in the standings.

A check of club officials showed that for the most part the coaches and owners of teams with poor records condemn the officiating while those with title chances see nothing wrong with the way the rules are being administered.

It all started with Tony Morabito, owner of the San Francisco 49ers, expressing dissatisfaction with the officiating after his club lost to the Chicago Bears 38-21 Sunday for their fourth setback in five games. Morabito said he would try to get Commissioner Bert Bell fired when the league meets in January.

And then Morabito was joined by Coach Paul Brown, whose Cleveland Browns also have dropped 4 of their 5 games.

"It isn't only Tony," said Brown. "There is a general feeling around the league that the officiating has to be improved. The thing that irks Tony is that you can't do anything about it. But something has to be done, and I think Bert Bell himself agrees that something must be done."

To which Bell replied:

"The officials are doing a great job. They have 50 or 60 judgment plays a game and naturally everyone doesn't see them the same way. We have the best officials around. I don't say they don't sometimes make mistakes. We all do. But they do a great job in a tough situation."

Lining up with Bell in the argument were officials of the Chicago Cardinals and New York Giants, whose 4-1 records gives them a tie for first place in the Eastern Conference.

Mount Union To Face Tough Heidelberg

When Mount Union College's football team takes the field Saturday, they will be playing host to the Heidelberg Student Princes, who have won their last 17 games in a row.

Mounts' record shows one win and five losses.

The Student Princes are considered one of the best small college teams in the state and perhaps the nation.

Last week Heidelberg ripped to a 33-0 win over Baldwin-Wallace while Mount was dropping a 17-0 contest to Hiram.

Coach Duke Barret of Mount knows that his Raiders are going to have to be at their peak if they are even to give Heidelberg a "run for their money." Battered physically and mentally, the Raiders wil go into the game with little holding them together for acti o n for the Ohio Confernce leaders.

It is possible that Mount will not be able to call upon fullback Bill Gay for regular duty. The Erie, Pa., senior bruised his arm in the Hiram tilt and may be side-lined if it fails to respond.

Pacing the Heidelberg backfield as they go after win number 18 will be flashy senior halfback Walt Livingston, who is Mr. All-Everything including Little All-American. The top scorer in the loop with 72 points, Livingston has averaged 142.7 yards a game — only nine yards short of the average per game of the entire Mount backfield.

In quarterbacks Jim Gruden and Bryan Powers the Princes have a pair of signal - callers who rank among the best in the loop.

J. D. Ray, scrappy senior halfback, continues to lead the Mount attack with an average of six yards a carry and to be the outstanding defensive halfback and linebacker in the loop.

Football Briefs

CHICAGO (AP) — Midwest football briefs:

Northwestern — Four reserve halfbacks are nursing injuries as the Wildcats prepare defenses against Ohio State's running attack.

Ohio State — "The squad looks like it is in as good shape as it has been all season," said coach Woody Hayes. "I think we'll take Northwestern."

Michigan — Backfield groups were shuffled to give individuals experience with different units in drills for Iowa.

Iowa — Don Dobrino, left half, is being groomed for the first time this year as a passer. "We feel we have to pass more in the Michigan game than at any time this season," said coach Forest Evashevski.

Michigan State — An operation on Clarence Peaks' left knee was declared "a complete success." The doctor said that "in another year, he won't even know he had a bad knee."

Wisconsin — The Badgers may step up their aerial game against Michigan State with Gil Blackmun doing most of the hurling.

Indiana — Guard Dan Holland is not expected to play against Marquette. He has an ankle injury. Quarterback Chick Cichowski, who missed the Northwestern game, may see service as a punter and extra-point kicker.

Marquette — At least 10 of the first 22 Warriors have injuries. But only fullback Jim Surance and end Art Katula may not go against the Hoosiers.

Minnesota — In rehearsals for Pitt, capt. Dean Maas moved back into the No. 1 center spot, replacing Mike Svendsen who has bruised fingers, ribs and a leg.

Notre Dame — Ed Sullivan, center, against missed practices with an arm infection. Defense against Navy's ground attack was stressed.

Ohio State To Face Wildcats Saturday

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio State will try to fatten up its Big Ten statistical edge against Northwestern Saturday and set a record of 16 consecutive conference football victories.

The Buckeyes are tops in rushing with a 287.5-yard average in two games, according to official figures released today. Illinois, Purdue's next foe, is second in ground gaining with 270.

Purdue leads the aerial department with a 165.7 average and Indiana is next with 124. The total offense leader is Illinois with 344.3 followed by Purdue with 320.3 and Ohio State with 316.

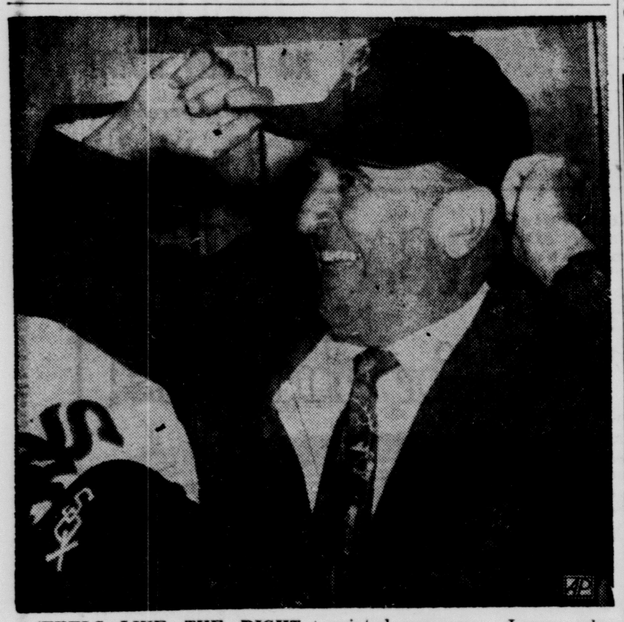
Illinois' Abe Woodson widened his lead in individual rushing with a total of 382 yards in three league games. Mel Dillard of Purdue is second with 260. Purdue's Len Dawson, with 477 yards by passes and 12 by running, is No. 1 on total offense while Woodson is second.

Iowa's Bill Happel, 168 - pound junior halfback from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, leads in average gain with 8 yards per crack in 22 rushes. Woodson is second with 6.8 in 56 trips.



'FEELS LIKE THE RIGHT SIZE'—Beaming with delight as he tries on a Chicago White Sox cap, after signing contract in Chicago is Al Lopez, newly-appointed manager. Lopez, who resigned as manager of the Cleveland Indians in September, signed a one-year contract with the White Sox.

CARDINAL MINDSZENTY FREED — Escorted by armed Hungarian soldiers, Hungary's Joszef Cardinal Mindszenty arrives back at his official residence in Budapest. The Cardinal, showing few effects of his eight years of Communist imprisonment, drove directly to his palace avoiding many of the crowds gathered to greet him.

Nixon Hopes To Tip Scales To GOP In Pennsylvania

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (AP)—Vice President Nixon returned to Pennsylvania today for two days of intensive campaigning, most of it by train, in a final bid for the 32 electoral votes of this key state.

Democrats are claiming Pennsylvania for Adlai Stevenson, but Republicans dispute this. Nixon hopes to tip the scales with a dozen speeches. He also plans to plug hard for Sen. James Duff (R-Pa), who is in a tough fight for re-election with former Mayor Joseph Clark of Philadelphia.

The vice president boarded his special train in New York City after one of his most strenuous days on the road—a 24-hour period during which he flew from coast to coast and made five speeches in two of the nation's greatest industrial centers.

In Detroit he assailed Stevenson for injecting the Middle East crisis into the campaign and also sought to win over voters of Polish extraction and other minorities with the assertion that re-election of President Eisenhower is the way to keep steam behind the movement for liberation of Russian satellites.

In New York's Harlem Wednesday night he told a predominantly Negro crowd that only the Republicans could follow through on civil rights pledges, because, he said, the Democrats were deadlocked on the issue with Southerners holding the upper hand in Congress through seniority.

Developers Of Transistor Get Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) —The 1956 Nobel prize in physics was awarded to three U. S. scientists today for their development of the tiny transistor.

The winners, who did their work in the laboratories of the Bell Telephone Co., are William Shockley of Pasadena, Calif., Jay Bardeen of Urbana, Ill., and Walter H. Brattain, Murray Hill, N. J.

The $38,633 physics award — to be split three ways among the winners — recognized the swift advance of science and technology into the vast new field of physics of the solid states.

It was known that the transistor team had been figuring high among the Nobel physics prize candidates for several years. They had long ago been declared prize-worthy by Nobel committee experts.

The micro-amplifiers known as transistors perform virtually every function of vacuum tubes in electronics and communications but need only a fraction of the current and space of the old vacuum devices. They can be made of various semiconductor solids. Transistors work by directing the flow of electric current through "holes" in the crystals.

Budapest Free Of Red Army

Russians Reported Surrounding Capital

VIENNA (AP) — Battered Budapest was virtually free of Soviet troops today, but the Russians were reported forming a cordon around the Hungarian capital.

Resentment mounted in Budapest against Communist Premier Imre Nagy's regime.

Budapest radio said Nagy's government had sent Moscow a note demanding that Soviet delegates be named to confer with Hungarian officials on complete withdrawal of Russian troops from the whole country.

Despite this announcement and Nagy's promise of free elections and other reforms, demonstrations grew against his regime. Nagy himself did not take over until after the rebellion started.

"Out with the government of murderers" shouted a crowd of 2,000 demonstrators in Kossuth Square outside Parliament.

Hungarian troops bolstered by armed civilians were seen camped on the outskirts of Budapest. It was believed they were trying to prevent the escape of prominent Communists and members of the hated Hungarian secret police.

Street fighting was reported still going on Wednesday night between the victorious rebels and members of the state police near Budapest's southern railroad station. Secret police officials also were hunted down in other parts of the city and their bodies burned in the streets.

At one square a mob of teenagers drenched the bodies of about 40 policemen in gasoline and set them afire.

Prague radio said a move was afoot to make Josef Cardinal Mindszenty Hungarian premier. But there was no confirmation of the report.

Cardinal Mindszenty declined to make a statement now, but said he would hold a news conference Friday.

To Review Use Of Road Funds For Garage

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday agreed to review lower court decisions allowing use of state highway funds to plan a 4½-million-dollar parking garage under the statehouse grounds.

Taxpayer Olen Grandle of Cincinnati, a parking lot operator, appealed the decisions. He contended that highway improvement funds cannot be used for other purposes such as a parking garage because of a constitutional ban.

In other actions, the Supreme Court:

Let stand the second degree murder conviction of Harvey Jeter, Canton, in the Aug. 18, 1955, shooting of Onray Shakleford during an argument over $3 owed by Jeter's brother, Willie.

Turned down the appeal of Mrs. Frances Reeves from Stark County decisions denying her medical expenses for injuries received by her son, David Kellams, while playing in the yards of the Block Coal and Supply Co., Canton. Truck equipment fell on the boy's head in 1945 when he was 12.

Agreed to review Stark County decisions that Ohio courts need not recognize a California order that the divorced wife of Elmer Cunningham give him custody of their child born in 1947. A California court gave Mrs. Cunningham custody but later midified it in favor of the father.

Refused to disturb Appellate Court orders for separate new trials in Canton Municipal Court for Steve Kurtz and three others convicted jointly on charges of gambling at the home of John Aventino (524 Watson Pl., S.E.) on Jan. 8, 1955.

Let stand Scioto County decisions denying the Warner Wall Transfer Co. $1,136 in damages from George A. Suter Jr. Warner Wall rented an allegedly defective crane used in an unsuccessful attempt to erect a 20,000-ton vertical gasoline storage tank at Ralph Chabot's station in Portsmouth. The company said a crane line broke and damaged the tank.

Refused to consider the appeal of workers at Timken Roller Bearing Co. in Zanesville from an Appellate Court decision affirming denial of unemployment benefits. The workers claimed a 1945 strike at the company's Canton plant by the United Steelworkers Union shut off parts of the Zanesville plant.

Left undisturbed an Ironton decision holding that Milton Mann won election in November 1955 as trustee of Fayette Twp., Lawrence County, on the toss of a coin, thus breaking a recount tie vote. Billie Bob Collings appealed on grounds that the vote of an Ashland, Ky., resident was counted in the election.

ISRAELI ARMY COMMANDER. — Maj. Gen. Moshe Dayan, 41-year-old chief of staff of Israel's army, smiles while inspecting troops at recent review. He wears patch to cover loss of left eye in action with Australian troops against Vichy French forces in Syria in 1941. An early Jewish colonist in Palestine, he participated in Arab - Jewish skirmishing in the 1930s and rose to command Jerusalem brigade in 1948 Palestine War. He was appointed Israeli chief of staff in 1953.

FULL HOUSE — Adlai Stevenson (foreground) addresses a huge crowd, estimated at 12,000, in the University of Pennsylvania field house in Philadelphia. The Democratic presidential nominee said events in the Middle East contradict President Eisenhower's recent statement about "good news." Stevenson also said the Eisenhower administration had dismissed a plan he advanced over a year ago to head off war between Israel and Egypt.

Tomato Sauce With Clams

Try these spaghetti sauces now. Then, if your family likes them, you'll have them to bank on for economical and quick main dishes all winter long.

One of the recipes combines tomatoes and clams — a combination that has been favored fare in many coastal towns and cities for years. But now that there are excellent canned minced clams available, this combination is bound to win inland praise. Put this sauce together quickly and let it cook over low heat for about an hour and a half; you can go about other household chores during this time because the sauce will need no more attention than an occasional stir.

The other recipe is the good old tomato-meat combination—brought up to date with a time-saving canned spaghetti sauce and ground beef. We find that several brands of these meatless tomato spaghetti sauces are very good indeed; shop around and try several until you find the one your family likes best.

Again, when you are shopping for the spaghetti to serve with the sauces, remember that you can get the regular or the thin variety.

Spaghetti with Clam Sauce

Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound tomatoes, 1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste, ¼ cup chopped onion, 1-3 cup chopped green pepper, 1 clove garlic (minced), 2 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon dried crushed oregano, 1 can (10½ ounces) minced clams, 3 quarts boiling water, 1 tablespoon salt, 8 ounces spaghetti.

Method: In a saucepan, thoroughly mix the tomatoes, tomato paste, onions, green pepper, garlic, 2 teaspoons salt and oregano. Cook over low heat about 1½ hours, stirring occasionally. (use an asbestos pad under the saucepan if necessary to keep heat low). Add clams, including liquid in can; heat but do not boil. About 10 minutes before sauce is done, add 1 tablespoon salt to the rapidly boiling water. Gradually add spaghetti so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Serve sauce over spaghetti. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Note: To keep spaghetti long and unbroken, do not push top ends down into boiling water until bottom ends are flabby.

Spaghetti with Speedy Meat Sauce

Ingredients: 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ pound ground beef chuck, 1 can (10½ ounces) meatless tomato spaghetti sauce, salt, pepper, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces spaghetti.

Method: Heat olive oil in saucepan or skillet. Add beef and cook until it loses its red color, mashing with a fork to crumble. Add sauce and salt and pepper to taste; simmer about 10 minutes, stirring a few times. Meanwhile, add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add spaghetti so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Serve sauce over spaghetti. Makes 4 servings.

Economical Burger Mix Provides Fill-In Meal

Buffet style luncheons are ever popular for a quick fill-in meal when bulk food is necessary and time is short or appetites are almost nil.

Tension on the budget is lessened too, when this burger mix that heaps up the chafing dish is prepared from economical ground beef.

To prepare the burger mix, use 1½ pounds ground beef, 2 tablespoons fat, ½ cup chopped onion, ¼ cup chopped green pepper, ¼ cup chopped celery, ¼ cup chopped ripe olives, 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce, ¼ cup chili sauce, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 teaspoon chili powder, 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper.

Brown beef in melted fat. Add onion, green pepper, and celery, and cook 5 minutes or until tender. Add remaining ingredients, cover pan and cook over low heat 20 to 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Clams, Shrimp Are Party Dishes

Canned clams and frozen shrimp make party dishes. That's what Mrs. Paul Goeser of Chicago told us. A former home economist, now mother of two boys, she plans and prepares wedding receptions for young couples of the Morgan Park Presbyterian Church.

Her clam puffs and her curried shrimp with white grape sauce are among her favorites.

Clam Puffs

Two three-ounce packages cream cheese, 1 well-drained can minced clams, 1 tablespoon sherry or lemon juice, ½ teaspoon onion, salt

Mix well, and pile on thin rounds of bread. Broil until brown and puffy Serve piping hot. (This mixture, chilled and piled in a bowl, can be used as a dip for potato chips, small crackers or celery stalks. It is equally delicious hot or cold).

Curried Shrimp with Grapes

One 12-ounce package frozen, cooked and shelled shrim, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium onion, chopped fine; ½ teaspoon salt, freshly ground black pepper, 1 can condensed mushroom soup, 1 teaspoon curry powder, ½ cup white seedless grapes, canned or fresh; 4 tablespoons thick sour cream, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, cooked rice.

Let shrimp thaw. Saute onion in butter until brown. Add salt and pepper. Add soup, curry powder, shrimp. Heat thoroughly. Just before serving remove from heat stir in sour cream, lemon juice, and grapes. Serve on hot, cooked rice.

A blend of pineapple and grapefruit juices may now be had canned. Nice served with some mint sprigs.

Your pie crust shrinking? You may have added too much water to the dough or you may have overstretched it when fitting it into the pan.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Cinnamon stick and whole clov add spice to a red cherry sau to be served with cottage puddin

Use apple cider for the liquid a raisin sauce to be served wi ham

Add a few drops of peppermi extract to sweetened whipp e cream. Serve as a topping f o chocolate pudding.

Don't scrape the bottom ar sides of a saucepan when you a turning candy out of it.

Harvest Vegetables Part of Thanksgiving

Fresh harvest - time vegetables are traditionally part of the Thanksgiving feast. Certainly no dinner on Thursday, Nov. 22, would be complete without a dish of sweet potatoes or a dish of rutabagas.

Here are two new variations on those historic themes. Enjoy them with your turkey.

Sweet Potatoes

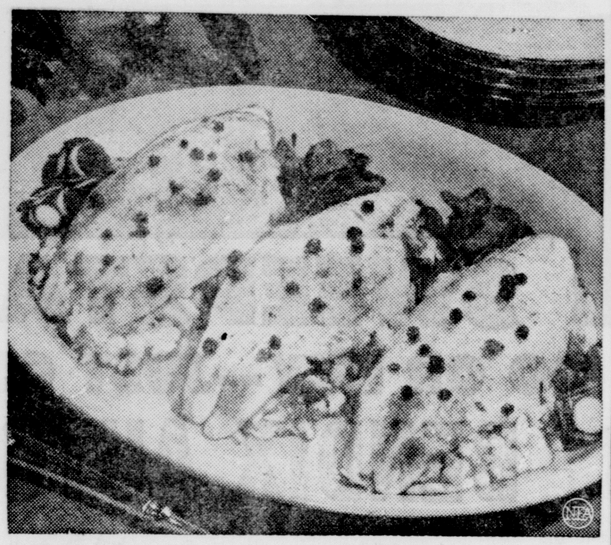
Boil 6 medium (2½ pounds) unpeeled sweet potatoes until soft. Remov from heat, peel and cut into quarters. Place in a 10x5x2-inch baking dish. In the meantime, combine ½ cup sugar, 1-3 cup fresh orange juice and ¼ teaspoon salt in a saucepan. Bring to boiling point. Add grated lemon rind and pour over potatoes. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes or until the potatoes are hot and the syrup is bubbly. Serve hot.

Rutabagas Supreme

Peel 1½ pounds fresh rutabagas and cut into ½ to ¾-inch cubes. Place in a saucepan with 1 inch boiling water and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to boiling point and boil 3 minutes. Cover and continue boiling 12 minutes or until tender. Drain, if necessary. Melt 3 tablespoons butter or margarine in a small saucepan and cook until golden brown. Add ¼ cup chopped salted peanuts and ⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper. Pour over cooked rutabagas and toss lightly. Serve hot.

A blend of blue cheese, cream cheese and sour cream makes a delectable salad dressing. Add salt, pepper, paprika and grated onion to taste.

Unusual Florida Fish Recipes



Baltimore - born Helen E. Becker, of St. Augustine, Fla., "married Navy" and roamed the world over. One of her many hobbies is devising new ways to use Florida's fine fish.

Widowed in 1934, mother of a grown son, she is also godmother to six Portuguese children, "memsahib mama" to four Pakistani flyers and has been recognized by England, Portugal and Pakistan for her USO work with their armed forces.

Flounder Anastasia

Six to eight fillets, salt, pepper, oregano, 1 pound shrimp, cooked and chopped; 1 cup coarse bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon cayenne.

Sprinkle fillets with salt, pepper and oregano. Arrange half the fillets in a greased broiler pan; or a pan lined with greased foil.

Mix shrimp, bread crumbs, onion, parsley, salt and cayenne.

On each fish fillet in pan, place a portion of the stuffing. Top each with another fillet.

Bake stuffed fillets at 375 degrees F. (moderate oven) 25 to 30 minutes or until fish flages easily when tested with a fork.

Baste frequently with caper sauce. Serve with any sauce left.

Caper Sauce

One-half cup lemon juice, ¼ cup olive or salad oil, ⅛ teaspoon garlic powder, ¼ cup capers.

In a small saucepan, combine lemon juice, olive oil, garlic powder, and capers; heat.

Baked Red Snapper

Four-pound red snapper, salt, pepper, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, 1 cup minced onion, 3 tablespoons bacon drippings or other fat, 4 cups chopped tomatoes, either fresh or canned well-drained; 1 tablespoon minced parsley, ½ teaspoon dried thyme, bay leaf, crumbled; ¼ teaspoon sugar, about 1 cup boiling water.

Have fish dealer dress fish. Rub inside and out with salt, pepper and mustard. Place fish in well-greased baking dish, brush with cooking oil. Sprinkle lightly with flour.

Bake at 350 degrees F. 15 minutes.

In the meantime, make sauce by lightly frying onion in fat. Add tomatoes, parsley, thyme, bay leaf and sugar. Add salt and pepper to taste. Simmer 15 minutes.

Then ladle over fish. Return to oven and continue to bake 30 to 40 minutes, or until fish flakes lightly when tested with fork.

Baste fish with sauce twice during baking. Add boiling water to the sauce as you baste the fish.

Mushroom Spaghetti Casserole

With food costs at an all-time high, Connie Coale has to budget carefully. Her young husband is a third-year medical student at Cornell University Medical College in New York and she herself has an eight-hour job as a medical secretary. Even so, the Coales entertain friends at least twice a week.

That means shopping on the way home and watching every penny. They plan "can-opener" dishes and select recipes that are different and pleasing. Their guests — medical students and their wives — usually bring something to add to the dinner, like wine and dessert.

Connie's mother gave her this mushroom-spaghetti casserole. She usually prepares it a day ahead and then heats it just before company arrives. A hearty chef's salad with strips of canned luncheon meat and cheese go with the meatless casserole.

Mushroom-Spaghetti Casserole

Two cups chopped onions, 2 tablespoons bacon drippings, 1 cup slivered green pepper, 2 4-ounce cans mushrooms, 2 No. 303 cans tomatoes, 1 10½-ounce can condensed cream of tomato soup, ¾ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 pound cooked spaghetti, 3 cups bread crumbs, 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

In Dutch oven, or heavy skillet, saute onions in drippings until tender. Add green pepper and cook until onions are golden. Add mushrooms and their liquid, tomatoes, soup, salt, pepper and Worcestershire to onions. Bring to boil. Combine sauce and cooked spaghetti. Refrigerate for about 6 hours. Bake in 4-quart capacity baking bowl or casserole with buttered bread crumbs on top for about 30 minutes in 375-degree F. oven. If casserole is very well chilled, allow a few minutes' longer baking time and add about 1 cup tomato juice during baking period.

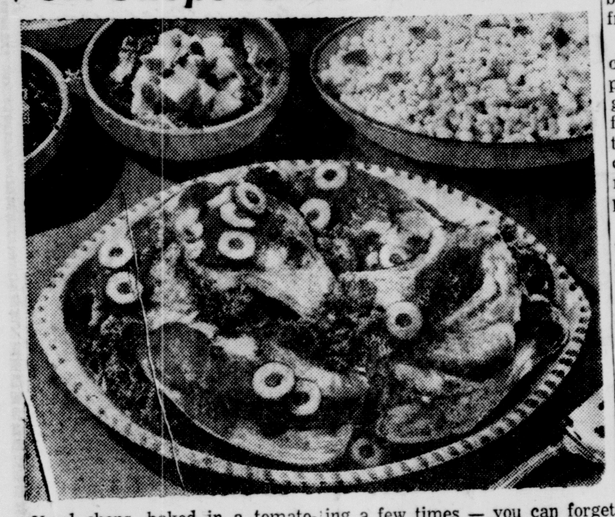
Veal Chops Baked With Sauce



Veal chops, baked in a tomato-olive sauce, make a fine main course because — except for basting a few times — you can forget about them while they are getting succulently tender. Another advantage of this recipe: if you arrange the chops in an attractive baking dish, they can go straight from oven to table.

Guests of ours enjoyed these chops when we served them with pasta dresed only with butter and grated cheese. We chose shells for the pasta, but you may want to use some other variety. For the cheese we used Romano, but you may substitute Parmesan, if you prefer, or even a good cheddar.

Serve a cooked vegetable with the chops and a salad — or omit the vegetable and offer only salad. The soft texture of the veal and the pasta takes to something crisp. We also served crisp French-bread rolls so every last remnant of the good sauce could be mopped up with snippets of them. A prune whip was our desert and added an airy ending to a satisfying meal but a souffle would be equally pleasant.

If a marinara-type tomato sauce is available, be sure to use it in this recipe. That combination of peeled plum tomatoes, olive oil and seasonings is just right with the veal. The olives in the dish add an unexpected and interesting flavor.

Veal Chops with Tomato Olive Sauce

Ingredients: 6 veal rib chops, (about ½-inch thick), 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 can (8 ounces) meatles tomato sauce, 2 tablespoons cooking sherry, ½ cup sliced pimiento-stuffed green olives.

Method: Have meatman crack chop bones about 1 inch from ends. Brown chops on both sides rapidly in hot butter. Mix tomato sauce, shery and about 1-3 cup of the olives. Turn tomato sauce mixture into baking dish — about 8 by 12 by 2 inches. Cut through ends of chops where bone has been cracked. Arrange chops, in one layer, over tomato sauce; tuck chop ends into small spaces. Bake, uncovered, in moderate (375 degrees) oven until chops are tender — about 45 minutes. Baste every 10 or 15 minutes. Sprinkle with reserved olives and serve at once. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Note: Iron skillets are excellent for browning meat. If you have a very large one (about 12 inchs) you can brown the 6 veal chops called for in this recipe in it at one time. If not, the chops may be browned at one time in two smaller iron skillets. A 10-inch iron skillet will take four of the chops and 1½ tablespoons of the butter called for may be used in it; an 8-inch skillet will take the other two chops and the remaining ½ tablespoon of butter may be used in it.

Other Ways with Veal Chops

Kitchen Trick — When you are flouring veal chops before browning them, pour the seasoned flour into a sturdy brown paper bag that's a good size. Now put the chops in the bag and twist its top to close tightly. Shake the chops and flour together well in the bag. Easy and quick!

Good Partners — Breaded veal chops take to the company of fried apple rings. Put a dab of curarnt jelly in the center of each apple ring, just before serving, for pretty color.

Quick Sauce — Thicken a can of stewed tomatoes and add some sliced pimiento - stuffed olives. Serve with breaded veal chops. Save panwashing by making the sauce in the skillet in which the chops were cooked — after they are removed, and just before serving. Meanwhile keep the chops warm on a piece of aluminum foil the old-fashioned way — on the back of the stove.

Tea Cookies At Voting Sessions

Let's all register and vote this year!

Mrs. T. E. Lenigan, former president of the League of Women Voters of Summit, N.J., now living in Morristown, is hostessing a series of teas to arouse interest in national issues.

"We Americans have claimed a good deal of credit for the fact that 63 per cent of our country's voting population actually did vote in 1952," she explains. "And we women are proud that statistics show that the feminine turnout played a part in the percentage increase from other election years —from the 51 per cent in 1948, for example. But remember, that in France, the overall voting percentage is 75 per cent; in England, 83 per cent; in Sweden, 80 per cent."

Here is one of her tea cookies:

Stuffed Dated Vanilla Cookies

Three dozen pitted dates, 3 dozen pecan halves, ½ cup shortening, ¾ cup light brown sugar, 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract, ¼ teaspoon pure lemon extract, 1 egg, 1¾ cups sifted all-purpose flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1½ teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ½ cup milk.

Stuff dates with pecans and set aside. Cream shortening with sugar and pure vanilla and lemon extracts until light and fluffy. Beat in egg. Sift flour with salt and baking powder and add alternately with milk to the creamed mixture. Mix well. Drop from a teaspoon onto lightly greased cookie sheets. Press a stuffed date into the center of each. Cover dates completely with a little more of the cookie dough. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 15 minutes or until done. Remove from oven and cool on a wire cooler. Store in a tightly closed cookie box or jar.

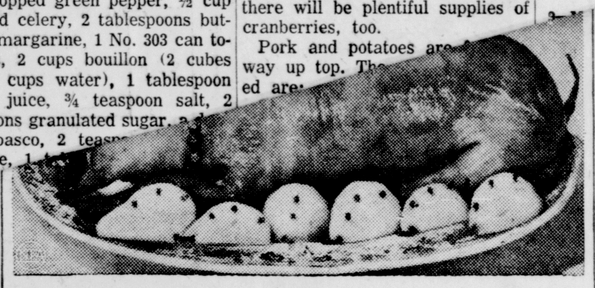
Turkeys Plentiful Come November

The United States Department of Agriculture's report on foods to be abundant during November is good news for Thanksgiving dinner. Turkeys head the list. Of course, there will be plentiful supplies of cranberries, too.

Pork and potatoes are[illegible] way up top. Th[illegible] ed are[illegible]



Roast suckling pig with a cranberry necklace — seasoned with ground black pepper and garlic stuffing — there's a lordly dish for Thanksgiving dinner.

We enjoyed it at the "Old Sturbridge Dinner" given by the American Spice Trade Association to show food editors some 18th century back country New England spiced dishes.

Roast Suckling Pig

Wash a 12-pound suckling pig in cold water and wipe dry. Mix 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper and 1-16 teaspoon garlic powder with which rub the inside of the pig. Combine 3 quarts toasted bread cubes, ¾ cup dried onion flakes, ¼ cup dried parsley flakes, 1½ teaspoons crumbled whole thyme leaves, 1 tablespoon whole celery seed, 1 tablespoon salt and ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper. Add ½ cup melted butter or margarine and 1 cup apple cider and toss lightly. Stuff pig loosely. Skewer and lace opening to close it.

Wipe the outside of the skin and rub generously with 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine. Place a block of wood in the pig's mouth to brace it for the apple which will be inserted later. Place on a rack in a large shallow pan in kneeling position. Pour in 2 cups boiling water and cover with aluminum foil. Roast in a preheated slow oven (325 degrees F.) 5 hours or until tender, basting every ¾ hour with the hot water in the pan. Add more water to pan if necessary.

Remove to a large serving tray or platter. Replace the wood[illegible]n block with a small red apple. Insert a large maraschino cherry in each eye socket. Place a cranberry necklace around the neck. Garnish platter with spiced fruit if desired. Keep warm while making gravy.

Woman Suggests Get-Vote Meeting

Let's all register and vote this year!

In New York, an attractive young woman, Helen Stevenson, is doing her share to urge everyone to register and vote for their chosen candidate. Of course, she is partial to her favorite cousin, Adlai.

She advises selecting a captain from within each apartment house to reach each tenant. The captain can invite a group to a "get-out-the-vote" meeting at which light refreshments are served.

Employes in business offic[illegible]s are reached by appointing volunteer captains, both in the executive and the secretarial branches, to see that every member of their office registers and votes.

Neighborhood parties she says can be inexpensive yet effective. Simple refreshments served on paper plates help make the party eas[illegible]y and successful.

Miss Stevenson suggests:

Poppy Seed Melba Toast

Combine 1-3 cup butter or margarine and 1 tablespoon poppy seed; cream until well blended. Trim side crusts from 14 slices thinly sliced white bread; spread butter or margarine mixture on bread slices and cut in half. Sprinkle with paprika. Place on baking sheet and bake in slow oven (300

Crab Bisque Is Eastern Shore Dish

Margaret L. Dugdale of Baltimore, water-color painter of marine life and collector of sea shells, is equally noted for her eastern shore recipes, especially crab bisque.

Crab Bisque (8 to 10 servings)

For about two quarts of bisque, wash 6 large or 9 medium-size live crabs and steam as follows: Place a trivet or rack on large kettle, add ½ cup vinegar and ¼ cup water. Put in two or three crabs at a time,(handling carefully with tongs). Sprinkle each layer with 1 or 2 tablespoons of a mixture of powder-type "hot" seafood seasoning and salt.

Cover kettle closely and steam for about 20 minutes after crabs have stopped kicking. Remove the crabs from kettle and let cool.

Take off claws and legs and save.

Remove and discard "apron" from underside of shell. Pull off red top shell from body of crab. Save. Cut away "dead men's fingers" from body of crab, also stomach, and discard.

Hold crab in two hands and break in half down the center, then cut through each half with a sharp knife.

Now, using a fish fork or small-

Scrape out fat from inside the red top shell and add to meat. Break up legs and combine with the inside shells and claw shells; cover with water, add a little salt and let boil slowly, about 45 minutes, to make stock. Strain stock and discard shells.

In a saucepan melt ¾ cup butter, add ¼ cup flour and cook until well blended. Add 2 cups cream and continue cooking, stirring constantly, until thickened.

Add enough of the strained crab stock to bring to desired consistency and then add crab meat.

Bring back just to the boil. Season with salt, cayenne pepper.

Confection Is Chicken Curry

Jan Yeakel is a busy young woman. Her husband, Frank, is an outstanding senior law student at the University of California in Los Angeles. She cares for him, their three small boys and two German shepherd dogs and their ranch style home in North Hollywood. She's also active in PTA and the U.C.-L.A. Law Wives Association. In her "idle moments" she gives informal suppers when their friends come in for an evening of pinochle.

Jan must shop carefully and use quick and easy recipes. She says this one fills the bill:

Tomato-Chicken Curry

One - half cup minced onion, ½ cup chopped green pepper, ½ cup chopped celery, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 No. 303 can tomatoes, 2 cups bouillon (2 cubes plus 2 cups water), 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ¾ teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons granulated sugar, a dash of Tabasco, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 1 tablespoon water, ½ cup light cream, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 to 4 cups cookd or canned boned chicken.

In a heavy skillet saute onion, green pepper and celery in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine until tender. Put tomatoes and juice through food mill or strainer. Add with bouillon to onions and cook ¾ hour over medium heat. Stir in lemon juice, salt, sugar, Worcestershire and Tabasco. Mix cornstarch and water; stir into sauce. Cook, stirring until mixture thickens and clears. Stir in cream and remaining butter or margarine. Add chicken. Serve over saffron rice with canned peanuts, coconut and chutney.

Saffron Rice

Two tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ cup finely chopped onion, 1 1-3 cups (3-ounce package) pre-cooked rice, 1½ cups fat-free chicken broth, ½ teaspoon salt, dash of pepper and pinch of saffron.

Melt butter or margarine, add onion, and saute until tender but not browned. Add packaged pre-cooked rice, broth, salt, pepper and saffron. Mix just to moisten all rice. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 13 minutes.

Turkeys Plentiful Come November

The United States Department of Agriculture's report on foods to be abundant during November is good news for Thanksgiving dinner. Turkeys head the list. Of course, there will be plentiful supplies of cranberries, too.

Pork and potatoes are featured way up top. The other foods listed are:

Of course, very few of us expect to serve wild turkey as the Puritans did. But for those who can, here's a recipe from the new "Guide to Game Cookery," prepared by the United States Brewers Foundation. Allow ¾ to 1 cup stuffing per pound of dressed meat.

Roast Wild Turkey

One wild turkey, 8 to 10 pounds (dressed weight), salt and pepper, ½ pound sausage meat, ½ cup chopped onion, 1 cup chopped celery, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ⅛ teaspoon crushed thyme, 5 juniper berries, crushed, ¼ cup chopped parsley, 1 cup cooked chestnuts, chopped, 8 cups soft bread crumbs (made from day-old bread), 4 to 6 slices bacon, melted bacon fat.

Sprinkle turkey inside and out with salt and pepper. Cook sausage in a skillet until well done. Add onion and celery, continue to cook until vegetables are tender. Add seasonings and bread crumbs, mix well. Spoon stuffing lightly into neck and body cavities.

Close openings with skewers and string. Cover breast with bacon slices and cheesecloth soaked in melted bacon fat. Pull legs upward, wild turkey fashion, and tie together with string. Turn wings under.

Place turkey breast side up on rack in roasting pan. Roast in preheated 325 degree F. oven 20 to 25 minutes per pound, or until tender, basting frequently with bacon fat and drippings in pan. Remove cheesecloth, skewers and string. Serve with giblet gravy, acorn squash, broccoli, corn muffins, whole cranberry sauce and ale or beer, if desired. Note: Use canned whole chestnuts or fresh chestnuts.

Halloween Fun Turns Into College Panty Raid

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Halloween fun turned into a panty raid at Montana University Wednesday night. The women apparently started it.

Before the hourlong battle of the sexes ended, the school president, Carl McFarland, had been hanged in effigy, a car had been left atop a pile of gravel and several girls were thrown into showers at Craig Hall, men's dormitory.

An eyewitness said it all started when women students from the residence halls decided to run through Craig Hall and other men's dormitories.

The men then decided to run through the women's residence halls. Some of them turned it into a panty raid, emerging from the buildings waving their trophies.

If you use small wooden skewers for broiling tidbits outdoors, be sure to soak the skewers for an hour or so before you're ready to cook.

Arrested 134 Times, Complains About Five

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — David Louis (Cockey) Bennett has been arrested 134 times since 1938, but it's the last few times that hurt, Bennett complained to the FBI. The 39-year-old unemployed laborer says Louisville police, who arrested him five times during the past week for loitering, violated his civil rights. The FBI said it would investigate.

"TAILOR-MADE" HAY BALES — Just choose your size, and this new hay baler will turn out bales from one-foot square to one by 4 1/3 feet. The machine carefully measures hay to produce bales of the size most suitable to the individual farmer. The baler also packs bales of hay into even slices, like loaves of bread, for easier handling. It was recently demonstrated at New Holland, Pa.
